CLHS Donated Books Shop

Donations of books are always most welcome. We primarily like to stock titles relating to the local history of Cheltenham and its surrounding villages, to Gloucestershire and to The Cotswolds. As well as commercially published books, we can also take the more rarely encountered private and short-run research pamphlets, and local history society publications. I am always very happy to call and collect larger numbers of books or to receive small donations at meetings.

A selection of books for sale will be brought to most CLHS meetings at St Luke's. In addition, a descriptive catalogue listing of all books in stock may be accessed on the Society website.

Books may be purchased directly at CLHS meetings at St Luke's or, at other times, by using one of my contacts listed below. Payment can be made by cash or cheque at meetings or upon delivery. Cheques should be made payable to the Cheltenham Local History Society. BACS payments are also possible; details upon application.

Deliveries can be made without charge locally; postage at cost will be charged if required. Pre-payment on invoice for the cost of book/s and postage is appreciated for posted items.

If you are looking for a particular title that we do not have a copy of in stock, do send me the details and I will be happy to keep it in mind. It is, of course, impossible to guarantee to find such sought-for titles.

Thank you for supporting the work of the Cheltenham Local History Society by your donations and purchases.
