THE present Volume of the CHELTENHAM ANNUAIRE being the seventh since its first establishment, it becomes unnecessary to do more than advert to this circumstance, as a sufficient evidence of the success which has attended the publication, and to assure those who have been its regular purchasers, or who have occasionally possessed themselves of a copy, that the approbation which they have from time to time bestowed upon the Work, has, year after year, stimulated its compiler to increased exertions in his endeavours to render it accurate; that it may become as useful as possible to those who have occasion to refer to its pages, and thereby be rendered worthy a continuance of that support which it has hitherto uniformly experienced.

POLICE.

The Police and Constabulary forces of Cheltenham were formerly under the control and at the disposal of the local Commissioners ; but since the introduction of the Rural Police into the county, the duty of watching and preserving order through the town has wholly devolved upon the newly constituted authorities—the Commissioners having disbanded the police engaged by them as now no longer necessary. The Cheltenham district, which also includes two sub-districts, having, together, a population of 45,000 souls, has assigned to it fifty-one constables or policemen. The calculated average cost of maintaining this force is £3225.

Police Barracks, Chester House, St. George's Place.

Inspectors of Nuisances, J. Russell, Vine Cottage, Brunswick Street; J. L. Williams, Rose and Crown Yard.

The Public Commissioners hold their meetings at the Fleece Inn, the first Friday in every month, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of taking cognizance of all matters connected with the local government of the town—plenary powers being vested in them for that purpose by an Act of Parliament passed in the year 1821 (2nd Geo. IV.); by which Act they are also empowered to frame such bye-laws and rules as to them shall appear necessary for the peace, security, and general interests of the town. The appointment and direction of the Police and Fire Establishments,* the paving and lighting the streets and highways, the regulation and superintendence of the frys and public conveyances, are, therefore comprehended within their peculiar province. Since the establishment in 1840 of the Rural Police, the Commissioners have, however, ceded to that newly constituted power the duty and responsibility of “watch and ward,” and have disbanded the constabulary and police forces formerly employed by them, and subject, of course, to their jurisdiction.

STREET GUIDE.

In the following " Guide to the Principal Streets and Detached Residences, those Houses only have been inserted which are occupied by the Resident Gentry, or are, strictly speaking, Private Houses. The list might have been considerably extended, had it been deemed expedient to have done so, by the introduction of such streets as are wholly, or for the most part, appropriated to the purposes of Trade; but, as the names of the occupants of houses thus circumstanced are generally conspicuously written up, it was felt that any Guide to their names and addresses than that which the general Directory afforded, was scarcely, if at all necessary.

A MEMOIR OF THE LIFE OF BISHOP HEBER.

BY THE LATE REV. G. BONNER, LL.B.

“Although the Memoir of this able, amiable, and lamented man, by his Widow, is full of interesting matter; yet its size and price place it out of the reach of a large class of readers, to whom Mr. Bonner has done a valuable piece of service by the present more accessible publication. The principal events of the Bishop’s life are very perspicuously related, and the various excellent features of his character are pointed out with great feeling and discrimination.”—Literary Gazette.

Opposite the Queen's Hotel.

M. A. respectfully invites the attention of the Nobility, Gentry, and Public, to his superior Stock of

SPECTACLES,

In Gold, Silver, Shell, and Improved Blue Steel Frames, with the best Brazilian Pebbles.

The best Spectacles are undoubtedly the BRAZILIAN PEBBLES; they are cooler to the eyes, besides not being so liable to be scratched or broken; and where expense is not an object, they are preferable to all others; their recommendation by the most eminent Oculists, and the benefit derived by those who habituate themselves to them, is incontrovertible evidence of their superiority.

Gold, silver, shell and steel, double and single eye glasses—telescopes—microscopes—magic lanterns, with sets of astronomical, natural history, and humorous subjects—diagonal machines for viewing prints—orreries—cameras—camera lucidas—brass sundials—teeth mirrors—cases of mathematical instruments—barometers—thermometers for breweries, baths, and botanical purposes—prisms—landscape glasses—sextants—quadrants—globes—air pumps—electrifying machines—electrotypes—levels—dissolving views—compasses, in silver, gilt, and brass—spectacles to shade the eyes from wind and dust—railway goggles—wire, gauze and crape spectacles—Payne's patent pedometers—voice conductors, &c. &c.

M R. RAW L I N G S,

Late of the CHRONICLE,

Begs to announce to his numerous Friends and the Public, that he has again commenced Business as

AUCTIONEER & APPRAISER;

in addition to which, he has entered into arrangements with several large Establishments in London, to be constantly supplied with

CABINET GOODS,

of every description; and that in order to give full effect to such arrangements, he has taken and entered upon those extensive Premises, 386, High Street, adjoining the Plough.

The principle upon which this Emporium will be conducted is, that of charging the lowest possible profit upon the wholesale prices, for ready cash only. Several depôts have been opened in the metropolis upon the same plan, and have been fully appreciated by a discerning public. Mr. R. doubts not he shall meet with equal encouragement from the inhabitants of Cheltenham.

SINGING, SPANISH GUITAR AND ITALIAN LANGUAGE.

SIGNOR ANELLI,
 (From CLIFTON.)

Respectfully informs the Nobility, Gentry, and Visitors of Cheltenham and its Environs, that, under the Patronage of the principal Families, he continues to give

INSTRUCTION IN SINGING,

by the Italian method, generally admitted the safest and the best calculated to correct imperfections, to improve and beautify the voice, not less than to create feelings and genuine taste. He gives, also,

Lessons on the graceful Spanish Guitar on the peculiar style of that Instrument, upon an original plan, the easiest and most effective, particularly with the voice.

Sign. A. attends Residences and Schools, and receives Pupils at his house, on liberal terms.

Classes of Four Pupils, for learning Singing and Italian Language, by the Quarter, two lessons per week, £3 each Pupil; and a Class may be formed among Friends at their Residence, on the same terms.

Application to be made at the principal Libraries, and at Sign.
 A.'s Residence, 13, Rodney Terrace. [45.]

MR. T. TAYLOR,

The celebrated and unrivalled

TEACHER OF THE HARP,

Mr. T. has no wish to draw the attention of the Nobility and Gentry to the Names of the Professors under whom he received his Musical Instructions, that course being too frequently resorted to by Teachers for the purpose of covering their own want of ability;
 he would rather refer, which he can in the most confident manner, to the performances of his Pupils; for instance, his son and daughters. Master TAYLOR, for years, has been considered a complete wonder in the Musical World, and now, by the common consent of all eminent Musicians, is one of the most finished Harpists in Europe; while the Misses TAYLOR each play the Harp in a chaste and masterly style. In private Families Mr.
 TAYLOR could also point to Pupils he has had the honour to instruct, and who are now First-rate Performers. These are proofs that cannot be offered by any other Harp Teacher in Cheltenham.
