J. MATTHEWS,
MEDICAL GALVANIST,
No. 3, BEDFORD BUILDINGS,
NEAR THE POST OFFICE.

THE good effects of Galvanism in a variety of ailments, particularly Rheumatism, Paralysis, Spinal complaints, Asthma, Indigestion, derangement of the Stomach, Liver, Nerves, &c., are set forth in a pamphlet, to be had gratis, as above.

The success which has attended the application of Galvanism as a Medical Agent, forms a new era in the annals of the healing art. Diseases, both acute and chronic, Derangements, local as well as general, soon yield to its skilfully directed influence; while the improvements, which modern science has accomplished in the Galvanic Apparatus, enable us to administer it in a manner at once efficient and agreeable.

Galvanism is not confined to any particular class of disorders; its application is general, and Invalids have only to try it, to be convinced of its efficacy. Among the many testimonies in its favour, that of Dr. Dickson, formerly of Cheltenham, is to the same effect; he says, "We can now understand how Galvanism may be directly and advantageously employed in every disease which has obtained a name—Ague and Consumption among the number."

TEN YEARS have now elapsed since the CHELTENHAM ANNUAIRE was first published. On the completion therefore of this, the first decade of its existence, the Editor feels especially called upon to express his grateful acknowledgment to those Friends and Subscribers, whose assistance and encouragements have greatly contributed to the success of his undertaking—and, at the same time, assures them that no exertion shall be wanting on his part to render the Volumes of future years in every way worthy the patronage and kind support which have been accorded to their precursors.

STREET GUIDE.

[In the following "Guide to the Principal Streets and Detached Residences," those Houses only have been inserted which are occupied by the Resident Gentry, or are, strictly speaking, Private Houses. The list might have been considerably extended, had it been deemed expedient to have done so, by the introduction of such streets as are wholly, or for the most part, appropriated to the purposes of Trade; but, as the names of the occupants of houses thus circumstanced are generally conspicuously written up, it was felt that any other Guide to their names and addresses than that which the general Directory afforded, was scarcely, if at all necessary.]

Passage: Joseph Simmons.

The Public Commissioners hold their meetings at the Fleece Inn, the first Friday in every month, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of taking cognizance of all matters connected with the local government of the town—plenary powers being vested in them for that purpose by an Act of Parliament passed in the year 1821 (2nd Geo. IV.); by which Act they are also empowered to frame such bye-laws and rules as to them shall appear necessary for the peace, security, and general interests of the town. The appointment and direction of the Police and Fire Establishments,* the paving and lighting the streets and highways, the regulation and superintendence of the flies and public conveyances are, therefore, comprehended within their peculiar province. Since the establishment in 1840 of the Rural Police, the Commissioners have, however, ceded to that newly constituted power the duty and responsibility of "watch and ward," and have disbanded the constabulary and police forces formerly employed by them, and subject, of course, to their jurisdiction.

RAILWAYS.

CHELTENHAM BRANCH OF THE GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY.

PRESENT STATION—Gloucester.

Up-Trains for London leave the Gloucester Station about every two hours throughout the day, and the Down-trains arrive there with corresponding frequency. As the hours of arrival and departure of the different trains change with the seasons, we think it best not to give the times at present advertised, as these would possibly mislead if referred to a month or two hence. Passengers and Goods are conveyed to and fro by the Gloucester and Birmingham trains; or, when these do not serve, by other conveyances.

BRISTOL, GLO'STER, & BIRMINGHAM RAILWAY.

	MILES.
From Cheltenham to Birmingham.....	45 $\frac{1}{4}$
— Cheltenham to Gloucester	7 $\frac{1}{4}$
Total length of line	52 $\frac{1}{2}$

CHELTENHAM STATION—Queen's Road, Lansdown.

Secretary, J. Saunders, Birmingham.

All the Trains from Bristol to Birmingham and from Birmingham to Bristol stop at the Cheltenham Station. There are also two or three short Trains daily between Gloucester and Cheltenham, at hours intermediate to those of the passing and re-passing of the long Trains. The Time Tables for all these are generally to be seen at any of the Coach Offices, Hotels, and Libraries of the Town.

In addition to the Public Institutions, Societies, and Companies, enumerated in the foregoing pages, there are also a great variety of Religious and Benevolent Branch Associations—such as the Bible, Missionary, Christian Knowledge, and other similar Societies; which not being identified in their objects with either the town of Cheltenham or the county of Gloucester, we have not deemed it necessary to particularize. There are likewise several Joint Stock Trading Companies which we have omitted in this division of the ANNUAIRE, having included most of them in the Tradesmen's Directory.

IN ITS

PAST AND PRESENT STATE;

BEING THE FOURTH EDITION OF THE STRANGER'S GUIDE;

Enlarged by the Introduction of much Additional Information: and Illustrated with numerous Lithographs, Maps, and Wood Engravings.

BY H. DAVIES.

NOTICES.

“Well deserves notice for the handsome style in which it is illustrated and got up, and for the talent displayed in the narrative, which relates all that is necessary to be known about the Past and Present State of the Town and Promenades. The Woodcuts are neat and numerous, and the information not only locally useful, but generally interesting,—so that it may be read with pleasure even by those who are not fortunate enough to visit the place.”—Literary Gazette.

“This Work, largely and admirably illustrated, does the highest credit to the provincial press. The Author has compiled his Volume with much judgment and good taste, and issued it in a very elegant form.”—Art Union.

“This Volume is a pictorial edition of a former Work by the same Author, and forms a very elegant and well-written Guide-book, fitted not only for the Stranger in Cheltenham, but for the Library of the Resident. Few towns in England are more worthy a volume to describe its beauties, and to indicate its amusements, than the Garden town of Cheltenham; and a very faithful description of all that is worthy the Visitor's attention is here given in a clear and impartial manner. The illustrations are of a very superior description, presenting an excellent representation of the most conspicuous parts of the town; and, altogether, this is a very artistically and carefully finished Work.”—Atlas.

Interspersed with Pictorial Glances, Botanizing Incidents, and Notices of many Remarkable Localities of the Rarer and most Interesting English and Welsh Plants.

BY EDWIN LEES, F.L.S.

NOTICES.

“From descriptions of the individual branch or blossom, Mr. Lees has warmed into expatiations of those vistas of natural beauty and majestic scenery which have burst upon him as he traversed the locales of his favourite flowers, and hence we have nature painted in many scenes of admirable sweetness and loveliness, and real feeling and artistical skill. The auxiliaries to the leading subject so add to its interest, that the Work becomes one of pleasure as much of instruction, and will be found agreeable to the general reader, as well as useful to the Botanist.”—Metropolitan.

“This book, by Mr. Lees, is a pleasant chronicle of the months; full of wholesome prose, starred with scraps of poetry. We like it none the less because its botanical researches contain constant references to one of the loveliest districts in England—South Wales and its neighbourhood; the Author’s general descriptions acquire thereby a local colour, which enhances their interest.”—Athenæum.

“An excellent monthly guide for the collecting Botanist.”—Court Journal.

“A very pleasing and literary guide to the beauties of our Wild Flowers through every month in the year.”—Literary Gazette.
