ADVERTISEMENT.

THE present Volume of the CHELTENHAM ANNUAIRE will be found to differ, in its arrangement and contents, from the Volumes of previous years. The alterations made, however, are but slight; and were it not that their accomplishment has involved the withdrawal of the lists of the Houses of Lords and Commons, would scarcely have required any notice. But as the present Parliament must, ere long, become extinct, this, it was thought, might, in the present instance, be done, without at all diminishing the utility of the Work; and seeing that the space thus gained has been appropriated to an extension and enlargement of those departments of local information which, in a provincial Directory, may be supposed to be most frequently the subjects of reference, the substituted matter will, it is hoped, be received in full consideration.

The arrangement of the Almanac has been altered so as to afford an entire page to the Memoranda of each month.

The official lists of the County have been carefully revised and extended by a gentleman eminently qualified to do so, from the office which he holds, and his long standing connection with the profession of which he is a member: for the assistance rendered him herein, the Editor of the Cheltenham Annuaire begs to tender his very sincere thanks.

He has also to acknowledge his obligations to the Authorities connected with the Cheltenham Post Office, who have rendered him much assistance in the correction of the Cheltenham Directory; and especially to the chief Clerk, to whose kindness he is indebted for the very full and careful digest of the various regulations of this important Department; with the lists of Foreign Packets, and the Rates of Postage at present in operation: the whole of which have been brought down to the latest moment.

Though great pains have been taken to render the CHELTENHAM ANNUAIRE AND DIRECTORY as accurate as possible, the Editor feels that there will still be found many errors of omission and commission in the Volume: for these he craves the same kind indulgence which, under similar circumstances, he has uniformly experienced in former years.

Jan. 1, 1847.

STREET GUIDE.

In the following "Guide to the Principal Streets and Detached Residences," those Houses only have been inserted which are occupied by the Resident Gentry, or are, strictly speaking, Private Houses. The list might have been considerably extended, had it been deemed expedient to have done so, by the introduction of such streets as are wholly, or for the most part, appropriated to the purposes of Trade; but, as the names of the occupants of houses thus circumstanced are generally conspicuously written up, it was felt that any other Guide to their names and addresses than that which the general Directory afforded, was scarcely, if at all necessary.]

The Public Commissioners hold their meetings at the Fleece Hotel, the first Friday in every month, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of taking cognizance of all matters connected with the local government of the town—plenary powers being vested in them for that purpose by an Act of Parliament passed in the year 1821 (2nd Geo. IV.): by which Act they are also empowered to frame such bye-laws and rules as to them shall appear necessary for the peace, security, and general interests of the town. The appointment and direction of the Police and Fire Establishments,* the paving and lighting the streets and highways, the regulation and superintendence of the flies and public conveyances are, therefore, comprehended within their peculiar province. Since the establishment in 1840 of the Rural Police, the Commissioners have, however, ceded to that newly constituted power the duty and responsibility of "watch and ward," and have disbanded the police force formerly employed by them, and subject, of course, to their jurisdiction.

RAILWAYS.

CHELTENHAM BRANCH OF THE GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY.

PRESENT STATION—Gloucester.

Up-Trains for London leave the Gloucester Station about every two hours throughout the day, and the Down-trains arrive there with corresponding frequency. As the hours of arrival and departure of the different trains change with the seasons, we think it best not to give the times at present advertised, as these would possibly mislead if referred to a month or two hence. Passengers and Goods are conveyed to and fro by the Gloucester and Birmingham trains; or, when these do not serve, by other conveyances.

BRISTOL, GLO'STER, & BIRMINGHAM RAILWAY.

	MILES.
From Cheltenham to Birmingham	46
— Cheltenham to Gloucester	7
— Cheltenham to Bristol	44

CHELTEMHAM STATION—Queen's Road, Lansdown.

Secretary, J. Saunders, Birmingham.

All the Trains from Bristol to Birmingham and from Birmingham to Bristol stop at the Cheltenham Station. There are also two or three short Trains daily between Gloucester and Cheltenham, at hours intermediate to those of the passing and re-passing of the long Trains. The Time Tables for all these are generally to be seen at any of the Coach Offices, Hotels, and Libraries of the Town.

In addition to the Public Institutions, Societies, and Companies, enumerated in the foregoing pages, there are also a great variety of Religious and Benevolent Branch Associations—such as the Bible, Missionary, Christian Knowledge, and other similar Societies; which not being identified in their objects with either the town of Cheltenham or the County of Gloucester, we have not deemed it necessary to particularize. There are likewise several Joint Stock Trading Companies which we have omitted in this division of the ANNUAIRE, having included most of them in the Tradesmen's Directory.

NOTICES.

“Well deserves notice for the handsome style in which it is illustrated and got up, and for the talent displayed in the narrative, which relates all that is necessary to be known about the Past and Present State of the Town and Promenades. The Woodcuts are neat and numerous, and the information not only locally useful, but generally interesting,—so that it may be read with pleasure even by those who are not fortunate enough to visit the place.”—Literary Gazette.

“This work, largely and admirably illustrated, does the highest credit to the provincial press. The Author has compiled his Volume with much judgment and good taste, and issued it in a very elegant form.”—Art Union.

“This Volume is a pictorial edition of a former Work by the same Author, and forms a very elegant and well-written Guide-book, fitted not only for the Stranger in Cheltenham, but for the Library of the Resident. Few towns in England are more worthy a volume to describe its beauties, and to indicate its amusements, than the Garden town of Cheltenham; and a very faithful description of all that is worthy the Visitor's attention is here given in a clear and impartial manner. The illustrations are of a very superior description, presenting an excellent representation of the most conspicuous parts of the town; and, altogether, this is a very artistically and carefully finished Work.”—Atlas.
