STREET GUIDE.

[In the following "Guide to the Principal Streets and Detached Residences," those Houses only have been inserted which are occupied by the Resident Gentry, or are, strictly speaking, Private Houses. The list might have been considerably extended, had it been deemed expedient to have done so, by the introduction of such streets as are wholly, or for the most part, appropriated to the purposes of Trade; but, as the names of the occupants of houses thus circumstanced are generally conspicuously written up, it was felt that any other Guide to their names and addresses than that which the general Directory afforded, was scarcely, if at all necessary.]

The Public Commissioners hold their meetings at the Fleece Hotel, the first Friday in every month, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of taking cognizance of all matters connected with the local government of the town—plenary powers being vested in them for that purpose by an Act of Parliament, passed in the year 1821 (2nd Geo. IV.) : by which Act they are also empowered to frame such bye-laws and rules as to them shall appear necessary for the peace, security, and general interests of the town. The appointment and direction of the Police and Fire Establishments,* the paving and lighting the streets and highways, the regulation and superintendence of the flies and public conveyances, are therefore, comprehended within their peculiar province. Since the establishment, in 1840, of the Rural Police, the Commissioners have, however, ceded to that newly constituted power the duty and responsibility of "watch and ward," and have disbanded the police force formerly employed by them, and subject, of course, to their jurisdiction.

* The Engine House is situate in St. George's Terrace, and is under the superintendence of Mr. George Parsonage, St. George's Parade.

In addition to the Public Institutions, Societies, and Companies, enumerated in the foregoing pages, there are also a great variety of Religious and Benevolent Branch Associations—such as the Bible, Missionary, Christian Knowledge, and other similar Societies; which not being identified in their objects with either the town of Cheltenham or the County of Gloucester, we have not deemed it necessary to particularize. There are likewise several Joint Stock Trading Companies which we have omitted in this division of the ANNUAIRE, having included most of them in the Tradesmen's Directory.

CHELTENHAM BRANCH OF THE GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY.

STATION, St. James's Square.—Local Manager, Mr. Ashby.

Up-Trains for London leave Cheltenham Station about every two hours throughout the day, and the Down-Trains arrive there with corresponding frequency. There are also Short Trains between Cheltenham and Gloucester three or four times a-day. As the hours of arrival and departure of the different Trains change with the seasons, we think it best not to give the times at present advertised, as these would possibly mislead if referred to a month or two hence.

PAST AND PRESENT STATE;

NOTICES.

“ Well deserves notice for the handsome style in which it is illustrated and got up, and for the talent displayed in the narrative, which relates all that is necessary to be known about the Past and Present State of the Town and Promenades. The Woodcuts are neat and numerous, and the information not only locally useful, but generally interesting,—so that it may be read with pleasure even by those who are not fortunate enough to visit the place.”—Literary Gazette.

“ This Work, largely and admirably illustrated, does the highest credit to the provincial press. The Author has compiled his Volume with much judgment and good taste, and issued it in a very elegant form.”—Art Union.

“ This Volume is a pictorial edition of a former Work by the same Author, and forms a very elegant and well-written Guide-book, fitted not only for the Stranger in Cheltenham, but for the Library of the Resident. Few towns in England are more worthy a volume to describe its beauties, and to indicate its amusements, than the garden-town of Cheltenham; and a very faithful description of all that is worthy the Visitor's attention is here given in a clear and impartial manner. The Illustrations are of a very superior description, presenting an excellent representation of the most conspicuous parts of the town; and, altogether, this is a very artistically and carefully finished Work.”—Atlas.
