There are few tasks of more difficult accomplishment than to give a COMPLETE AND CORRECT DIRECTORY of the Town of Cheltenham: from the great influx of strangers, and consequent frequent changes of Residence amongst its Inhabitants,—the continual additions and improvements constantly being made in different parts of the Town, it is impossible for a work of this kind to be for any length of time, in every instance, correct. Yet I have devoted my humble efforts to produce a CHEAP LOCAL DIRECTORY, which I trust, may be acceptable, and, I hope, generally useful. My design has been to embody in a brief form, all that is really useful and interesting. I desire not to be regarded as a rival, but as a servant to the Public, anxious to supply direct information to ALL. The desire to render the present work worthy of the patronage of the Public, has left me no time to consider what arguments I shall employ to entreat the reader's indulgence should he meet with inaccuracies. But from the facts above referred to, I hope to be favoured with a lenient consideration of the disadvantages under which it is published.

It is my intention to publish a new edition NEXT YEAR, with considerable additions and improvements, when it will be my study, regardless of time or expence, to leave nothing undone that may render it worthy of general acceptance. In order to attain this desideratum, I respectfully solicit that any information respecting inaccuracies in the present work,—changes of Ministers, Public Officers,—or relating to any matters of Local importance may be forwarded to me, which will be thankfully received, and inserted in a book kept for the purpose.

Worldly anxiety is the poison of human life.

If our acts condemn us, our words will not avail us.

Nip mischief in the bud, for nothing ripens faster.

There is no malady more severe than habitual discontent.

Equivocation is a mark of cowardice and meanness of spirit.

Have peace with all men, but be at war with vice.

Hours have wings, and fly up to the author of time.

Those that boast most, fail most; for deeds are silent.

HIGH STREET.

* The High Street being the most important for business, the Publisher thought it desirable to place this Street as it stands—beginning at the top on the north side, continuing down to Townsend Street—then crossing to the south side—and from thence up to the top, or Sandford Road.

A
REPRINT OF A LETTER,
ADDRESSED TO A REV. MEMBER
 OF THE

 BY
M. DE COMTE DE MONTALEMBERT,
 ACCOMPANIED WITH A FEW
REMARKS AND QUERIES,
 BY THE REV. F. CALDER, F.L.S.D.L.

Shewing the fallacies of Romanism, and the dishonesty of the Puseyites.

EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS :

To all who have not read this very remarkable, this singularly able pamphlet, our earnest advice is, to procure it, and peruse, and reperuse it as speedily and as thoughtfully as possible. The title, as given above, conveys no idea of the production. The Letter of Count Montalembert, of which it is a severe and crushing exposure by a thorough Papist of the Romanizing tendencies of the Puseyite party in England. The Remarks and Queries by the author, contain an equally severe and crushing exposure of Romanism itself. Thus the pamphlet combines, by a most skilful arrangement, a condemnation of Puseyism by a Papist, and a condemnation of Popery by a Protestant. The amount of knowledge displayed by the author respecting the errors and enormities of Rome, is very great, and the comprehensiveness of the range is not more remarkable than the minuteness and accuracy, verified by ample references ; while the whole is expressed in a calm, clear, and powerful style—such as we have rarely seen equalled. We hope Mr. Macaulay will make it a point to study this pamphlet in order to obtain some notion of what popery really is, that he may no longer confound it with Christianity. If he undertake it, we venture to say that he will feel himself in the grasp of a hand far mightier than his own.—Free Church Magazine, August.

“ This letter is worthy of all publicity and circulation, and it is calculated to arouse us, if anything can, from that ominous, and we might almost fear judicial apathy which has come over us on this subject.” The Rev. F. Close's Sermon on the Restoration of Churches, &c.

PROPRIETORS :

JOSEPH SMITH & COMPANY.

—oo—

JOSEPH SMITH & COMPANY, (from the Golden Canister, Pall Mall, London,) beg to inform the Gentry and the Inhabitants of Cheltenham, that from many years experience in tasting and selecting TEAS AND COFFEES of all kinds—they have made themselves masters of their Trade.

J. S. and Co. have found through tasting Teas and Coffees, that the Cheltenham Water is one of the most difficult to get such articles to suit it, but our selection of Teas and Coffees is expressly for such water—they being of a peculiar kind.

The prices of our articles are as moderate as any House in this country, and finer quality shall not be found.

The favour of all Orders shall have our strictest attention.

Your obedient Servants,

JOSEPH SMITH AND COMPY.

COUNTY CLOTHING MART

117, HIGH STREET, CHELTENHAM,

(Adjoining the Lamb and George Hotels).

T. H. PINDER, PROPRIETOR.

The system adopted at the County Clothing Mart is in accordance with the spirit of the age, and as such, is eminently calculated to meet the approval of Purchasers, by securing to them advantages which no other Establishment in the County can justly lay claim to. The Proprietor's object, from the commencement, has been to extend his Business, by supplying the best Quality of Goods at prices far below other Fashionable Houses. The success attending his endeavour, is evidenced by the very liberal share of Patronage hitherto enjoyed by him.

THE STOCK OF BROAD AND NARROW CLOTHS

is unquestionably the largest in the County, and includes the finest specimens of West of England manufacture, and a profusion of Fancy Materials of British and Foreign production.

THE ASSORTMENT OF WAISTCOATINGS

will be, in successive Seasons—rendered attractive by the introduction of the choicest Fabrics the markets can produce.

The utmost amount of talent is engaged in the Manufacturing Department, enabling the County Clothing Mart to maintain its high position for correctness of fit,—style, and workmanship, for which it has been so long distinguished.

THE STOCK OF READY-MADE GARMENTS

is immense, and displays a degree of style rarely excelled in bespoke work.

THE HAT AND CAP DEPARTMENT,

possesses peculiar claims upon the attention of Purchasers; it being a well established fact, that persons exclusively engaged in this Trade cannot compete with those who have it appended merely as a branch to their general business; the former of necessity requiring a profit of 40 per cent, the latter only 15 per cent.

LIVERIES FULL 40 PER CENT BELOW THE USUAL PRICES.

Mourning Orders executed with the utmost Promptness.

FUNERALS FURNISHED.
