After fourteen consecutive years of publication, during which it has outlived at least half-a-dozen competitors, THE CHELTENHAM ANNUAIRE might almost dispense with Preface or Advertisement, but its Editor feels that he should be wanting in respect to the Inhabitants of Cheltenham were he to omit on the publication of this his fifteenth Volume, to thank them for the preference they have hitherto shown for his "Hardy Annual." The Volume now offered to their acceptance has been carefully revised, and it is hoped and expected will be found deserving a continuance of that support which those of former years have so happily experienced.

STREET GUIDE.

[In the following "Guide to the Principal Streets and Detached Residences," those Houses only have been inserted which are occupied by the Resident Gentry, or are, strictly speaking, Private Houses. The list might have been considerably extended, had it been deemed expedient to have done so, by the introduction of such Streets as are wholly, or for the most part, appropriated to the purposes of Trade; but, as the names of the occupants of Houses thus circumstanced, are generally conspicuously written up, it was felt that any other Guide to their Names and Addresses than that which the general Directory afforded, was scarcely, if at all necessary.]

The Public Commissioners hold their meetings at the Fleece Hotel, the first Friday in every month, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of taking cognizance of all matters connected with the local government of the town—plenary powers being vested in them for that purpose by an Act of Parliament, passed in the year 1821 (2nd Geo. IV.) : by which Act they are also empowered to frame such bye-laws and rules as to them shall appear necessary for the peace, security, and general interest of the town. The appointment and direction of the Police and Fire Establishments,* the paving and lighting the streets and highways, the regulation and superintendence of the flies and public conveyances, are, therefore, comprehended within their peculiar province. Since the establishment, in 1840, of the Rural Police, the Commissioners have, however, ceded to that newly constituted power the duty and responsibility of "watch and ward," and have disbanded the police force formerly employed by them, and subject, of course to their jurisdiction.

* The Engine House is situate in St. George's Terrace, and is under the superintendence of Mr. George Parsonage, St. George's Parade.

Secretary—J. Saunders, Birmingham.

All the Trains from Bristol to Birmingham and from Birmingham to Bristol stop at the Cheltenham Station. There are also short Trains daily between Gloucester and Cheltenham, at hours intermediate to those of the passing and re-passing of the long Trains. The Time Tables for all these are generally to be seen at any of the Coach Offices, Hotels, and Libraries of the Town.

In addition to the Public Institutions, Societies, Companies, &c. &c. enumerated in the foregoing pages, there are also a great variety of Religious and Benevolent Branch Associations—such as the Bible, Missionary, Christian Knowledge, and other similar Societies; which not being identified in their objects with either the town of Cheltenham or the County of Gloucester, we have not deemed it necessary to particularize. There are likewise several Joint Stock Trading Companies which we have omitted in this division of the ANNUAIRE, having included most of them in the Tradesmen's Directory.

* Sundays excepted.

Letters may be forwarded after the Closing of the Box, till within 20 minutes of the Despatch of the Mail, for a fee of One Penny each, and till within 5 minutes of the Despatch, for Three Pence, provided they are posted at the window, and that the Fee as well as the Postage be paid by attaching the requisite stamps. For those Mails despatched "during the night," letters bearing an additional stamp may be posted till 10.30 p.m.

ON THE SUNDAY all Inland Letters must be stamped or unpaid. Foreign Letters may be paid, postage stamps may be obtained, and Letters may be registered till 10 a.m., when the Office is closed for the remainder of the day.

BRANCH RECEIVING HOUSES.—Montpellier Exchange, Tewkesbury Road, St. Paul's Street, Portland Square, Corpus Street, and Northwick Terrace. Letters are despatched to the chief Office in Clarence Street three times daily, viz., 11 25 a.m., 7 10 p.m., and 8 25 p.m.

REGISTERED LETTERS.—Letters intended to be registered must be presented at the office at least half-an-hour before the closing of the box for the mail by which they are to be forwarded. The fee on Inland Letters is sixpence, which, together with the postage, must be paid in advance. All letters containing money or other articles of value should be registered.

MONEY ORDERS.—Money Orders are issued and paid (at the General Office only) from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. These Orders must be presented for payment before the end of the second Calendar Month after that in which they were issued, otherwise new orders will be necessary, for which a second commission will be charged. Orders not presented for payment before the end of the twelfth Calendar Month after that in which they were issued, are, by a recent Act of Parliament, null and void.

PRE-PAID RATES OF POSTAGE.—Letters not exceeding  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. one penny, 1 oz. two pence, 2 ozs. four pence, and so on, two rates being added for every ounce. Inland Letters posted unpaid are charged double the pre-paid rates. Letters insufficiently paid are charged on delivery double the difference between the amount paid and the proper rate.

LIMITATION OF SIZE AND WEIGHT.—Any Letter or Packet sent by Post between places within the United Kingdom must not exceed two feet in length. The weight is unlimited, but if it exceed four ounces the postage must be pre-paid in money or stamps.

The following are exceptions to the above restrictions:—Parliamentary Petitions, or Addresses to her Majesty; Petitions to either House of Parliament forwarded to any Member of such House; Printed Votes or Proceedings of Parliament; Letters or Packets to or from Public Departments or Public Officers on her Majesty's Service; Letters, &c., to or from places Abroad.

PRINTED BOOKS, Magazines, Reviews, and Pamphlets (whether British, Colonial, or Foreign), may be transmitted by Post within the United Kingdom, at the rate of 6d. a pound, on the following conditions:—

- 1.—Every such Packet must be sent without a Cover, or in a Cover open at the ends.
- 2.—It must contain a Single Volume only.

- 3.—No writing or marks must be upon the Cover, or its contents, other than the address of the sender and the person to whom it may be sent, except under the following restrictions, viz.—Any such writing or marks on any leaf of the Book (Magazine, Review, or Pamphlet), or on the binding thereof, must be on one and the self-same page of the Book, or corresponding portion of the binding.
- 4.—The Postage must be pre-paid in full, by affixing outside the Packet or its Cover the proper Stamps.

If any of the above conditions are violated, the Packet will be charged as a letter.

ARTICLES WHICH MAY NOT BE SENT BY POST.—Letters or Packets containing any of the following inclosures, cannot be forwarded through the Post Office, viz., any Glass or Glass Bottle, any Razor, Scissors, Knife, Fork, or other sharp or pointed Instrument; any Leeches, Game, Fish, Flesh, Fruit, Vegetable, or other perishable substance; any Bladder, or other vessel containing liquid; or any Article, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, which might, by pressure or otherwise, be rendered injurious to the Officers of the Post Office, or to the contents of the Mail Bags.

POSTAGE ON UNDELIVERED UNPAID LETTERS.—All persons sending Letters by the Post unpaid, which from any cause whatever cannot be delivered to the Parties to whom they are addressed, are liable to pay the Postage charged thereon, which may be recovered, with costs, by summary process before a Magistrate.

LETTERS FOR WARM CLIMATES NOT TO BE SEALED WITH WAX.—The practice of Sealing Letters for the East and West Indies, and other warm climates, with Wax is attended with much inconvenience, and frequently with serious injury to the Letters, in consequence of the melting of the wax, and adhesion of the Letters to each other.

NEWSPAPERS.

On Newspapers passing between places in the United Kingdom, any Writing or Marks are allowed, provided that a Postage of a Penny be pre-paid, by means of a Stamp conspicuously affixed outside the Cover or Folded Newspaper; and in those cases where the Newspaper may be liable to a Postage, irrespective of the Writing or Marks (as when Posted and Delivered in the same town), the Penny Stamp will cover the Writing and Postage also. This privilege is confined to Writing or Marks on the Newspaper itself. Newspapers with any Writing or Marks and not pre-paid as above; or if pre-paid and containing any enclosure, or with any Writing or Marks on the Cover other than the address, are liable to the full rate of Postage, chargeable on Un-paid Letters of the same weight.

NEWSPAPERS TO THE COLONIES OR FOREIGN COUNTRIES must be posted within seven days after the day of publication. [For rates of postage, see page 36]. Newspapers containing any inclosure, or with any writing or mark, whether upon them, or upon the Covers, other than the address of the party to whom they are forwarded, are chargeable with treble the duty of Letter postage.

GENERAL ADVERTISER FOR GLOUCESTERSHIRE AND THE ADJOINING COUNTIES.

—o—
The CHELTENHAM CHRONICLE & PARISH REGISTER is especially commended to the attention of those who desire to obtain full and accurate information of all occurrences and events which take place in the Town and Neighbourhood, likely to prove of any local interest :

REPORTS

OF THE

RELIGIOUS AND OTHER SOCIETIES

are regularly given, and the transactions of its various Public Bodies are noticed as fully as their importance may seem respectively to require; the Proceedings of the TOWN COMMISSIONERS,

AND ALL

VESTRY AND OTHER PAROCHIAL MEETINGS

ARE REGULARLY REGISTERED;

whatever, in short, relates to Cheltenham, in the fullest sense of the word, finds a place in its Columns, due care being, at the same time, exercised to exclude everything which may unfit it for family reading. By copious extracts and careful abridgements from the principal London and Provincial Journals, a general view is afforded of all the most important and interesting events occurring, both throughout the Kingdom as well as in Foreign Countries, and the intelligence is uniformly brought down to the very morning of publication.

The CHELTENHAM CHRONICLE was first Established in 1809, and, with the exception of the Gloucester Journal, is the Oldest Newspaper in the County of Gloucester. Its Subscription List, which was at all times extensive for a Provincial Journal, has, within the past twelve-months, very considerably increased, and probably at the present time includes a larger proportion of the upper and middle classes of society, in and around the place of its publication, than any other Weekly Journal. It consequently presents A MOST ELIGIBLE MEDIUM FOR ALL SUCH ADVERTISEMENTS as address themselves to those classes, as well as to the public generally.

SIMPLE, EFFICACIOUS,

And sanctioned by the principal Dentists in the Kingdom.

M<sup>R</sup>. SMITH

Particularly recommends the daily use of his "ANTI-ACID TOOTH POWDER," for preserving and beautifying the Teeth and Gums, and for keeping the Enamel of the Teeth white, and free from the deposit of tartar.

The ingredients of which this excellent Dentifrice is composed are recommended by the highest authorities on Dental Surgery, and it is prepared from a prescription of T. G. PALMER, Esq., Dentist, Cheltenham, and sanctioned by him.

Parties on purchasing are particularly requested to ask for that prepared by Mr. Smith, and which has his name and address on the label, as other preparations are offered under the same name differing totally in their composition. Sold in Boxes One Shilling each.

His Preparation of MYRRH, BORAX, and EAU DE COLOGNE, is also specially recommended in all cases where there is a tendency to TOOTH ACHE, or where the Gums are in a spongy and tender state, or have receded from the Teeth,—the daily use of a few drops on the tooth brush will impart a positive benefit and comfort to every one who uses it, and at the same time it entirely removes that sensitive state in which Teeth generally are where the Gums have receded from them, and by daily using which they may, in a short time, be cleaned with a hard brush. Sold in Bottles, 2s. 6d., 4s., and 6s. 6d., prepared by Nathaniel Smith, (late Lea, Ferrins, and Smith,) 373, High Street, Cheltenham. [49
