STREET GUIDE.

[In the following "Guide to the Principal Streets and Detached Residences," those Houses only have been inserted which are occupied by the Resident Gentry, or are, strictly speaking, Private Houses. The list might have been considerably extended, had it been deemed expedient to have done so, by the introduction of such Streets as are wholly, or for the most part, appropriated to the purposes of Trade; but as the names of the occupants of Houses thus circumstanced, are generally conspicuously written up, it was felt that any other Guide to their Names and Addresses than that which the General Directory afforded, was scarcely, if at all necessary.]

Regulations of the Cheltenham Winter Balls, 1852—53.

1.—That the Annual Series of Winter Balls and Card Assemblies, for the ensuing Season, at the Assembly Rooms, commence on Monday, November 8th, and take place weekly (with the exception of Monday, November 15th) up to Monday, February 7th, 1853, inclusive, and be resumed on Easter Monday, March 28th,—after which date (in consequence of the early occurrence of Easter next year) Three or Four additional, or extra, Balls will be given, and included in the Subscription Series.

2.—That the Balls commence at Nine and conclude at One o'clock. Ladies are particularly requested to give attention to this Regulation, that the Master of the Ceremonies may be enabled, by their punctual attendance, to commence the Ball at the appointed time.

3.—That no Clerk in this Town or Neighbourhood (except the sons of gentlemen who are themselves eligible to be Subscribers to the Balls); no Person engaged in retail trade or other public business, no theatrical or other public performer by profession be admitted; and the Lessee of the Assembly Rooms is hereby instructed not to receive Subscriptions from, or to issue tickets to such parties to whom the above restriction applies.

4.—That the Regulations relating to Dancing and all points of Etiquette, at the Balls, be left to the Master of the Ceremonies for the time being; and that the same authority as was exercised by all preceding Masters of the Ceremonies be used by him: and it is incumbent upon the Subscribers (inasmuch as they must be desirous of promoting good order and decorum in these assemblies) to conform to those Regulations and support the Master of the Ceremonies in the execution of his office.

5.—That the Master of the Ceremonies shall not be held accountable to any individual whatever, who may dispute or object to the established Regulations; but in case of any misunderstanding arising from this or other matters connected with the Balls, a reference may be made to the Committee; such reference, however, upon no account to be made at the time to any individual Member of it, but to be submitted to the Committee, in writing, on the morning following any such misunderstanding, for their consideration and decision.

6.—That the Rooms be opened for a Card Assembly every night of the Subscription Balls, at Eight o'clock.

7.—That after a Card Table has been once formed, no person be permitted to cut in unless invited to do so by the party already assembled.

8.—That the Committee do, at all times, give their support to the Master of the Ceremonies for the due performance of the established Regulations; and that they assist him, as far as possible, in introducing Strangers to Partners, in order to promote the pleasures of the Ball Room.

9.—That Three of the Members of this Committee act as Stewards at each Ball, in conjunction with the Master of the Ceremonies; and that the First Three Stewards name their Successors, and so on throughout the Series.

10.—It having frequently occurred that Strangers attending the Balls have expressed themselves disappointed of introductions, and it being impossible that the Master of the Ceremonies can introduce those of whom he has no knowledge, the following was added to the standing Rules:—That in order to obviate such disappointments (as far as practicable) in future, the Lessee be, and is hereby authorized and instructed, to ask the names of Strangers, and to give the M.C. the names of parties present at any Ball, whom he may know to be Strangers, or believe to be unknown to the M.C.

11.—That no resolution passed at any meeting of this Committee be rescinded, unless at a meeting called for that purpose, of which due notice by circular has been given, and at which at least five Members are present.

Master of the Ceremonies—Captain A. H. Kirwan, No. 8, Promenade Terrace.

* * * These regulations of the above General Committee apply only to the Winter Balls, which take place at the Assembly Rooms.

Committee of Management:

Comprises Twelve Members, who retire by rotation.

Solicitor—MR. R. S. LINGWOOD, 2, Promenade Place.

Treasurer—THE COUNTY BANK.

Secretary—MR. T. W. BRIGHTON, 2, Bedford Buildings.

This Association is formed to afford to the Tradesmen of Cheltenham the same protection which similar Societies afford to London, Liverpool, Manchester, Bath, and other populous Towns in England.

THE OBJECTS OF THE ASSOCIATION ARE—

The Suppressing any Illegal system of Trading, which may be considered injurious to the legitimate Trade of the Town.

Keeping Registers of Bankruptcy and Insolvent Cases in Cheltenham and its Vicinity, of the days of hearing, and other matters connected therewith, and affording Members pecuniary assistance in opposing fraudulent Debtors and Insolvents, and in investigating all cases of fraudulent preference, &c.

Obtaining all useful Information for the Members; especially a Weekly Copy of the Judgment Roll.

Cautioning and Protecting its Members against any suspected Swindlers, Common Informers, or Unlicensed Hawkers, or any Frauds to which they might otherwise be exposed; also against all persons disappearing from particular Neighbourhoods, for the apparent purpose of evading payment of their Debts.

And lastly to extending a watchful care over all other matters affecting Trading Interests, and suggesting proper remedies for whatever may appear injurious to Traders generally.

For the more ready detection of Frauds and Swindlers, as well as for other advantages, this Association, through the Secretary, will have constant communication with other Trade Protection Societies in the United Kingdom.

It is conjectured that the knowledge of the existence of the Association will of itself prove beneficial, by tending to prevent, or at all events to diminish, the evils it is aimed against.

Any Person carrying on any Profession or Trade, who has resided within the Borough of Cheltenham, for Six Months at least, will, on the recommendation of Two Members, and payment in advance of a Subscription of not less than Seven Shillings and Sixpence per annum, be admitted a Member of the Association.

Persons desirous of joining the Association, are requested to send their names to

THE COUNTY OF GLOUCESTER
Freehold Land & Benefit Building SOCIETY,

(Established in 1849, under the Act of Parliament 6th and 7th Wm. IV.,
 cap. 32; being the First Permanent Building Society established in Cheltenham.)

TRUSTEES:

James Agg Gardner, Esq., 2, Lypiatt Terrace, Cheltenham.
 J. S. Iredell, Esq., 25, Imperial Square, Cheltenham.

BANKERS:

The County of Gloucester Bank, Cheltenham.

SOLICITOR:

R. S. Lingwood, Esq., 2, Promenade Place, Clarence Street, Cheltenham.

SECRETARY:

Mr. T. W. Brighton, 2, Bedford Buildings, Cheltenham.

This Society, which was the first Permanent Building Society in Cheltenham, has now been established upwards of three years, and its Rules, during such period, have been found (with one exception hereinafter mentioned) to work well, as a proof thereof the said Rules have, with slight alterations, been adopted by a second Permanent Society, established about twelve months back in Cheltenham.

A Third Permanent Building Society having recently been formed in Cheltenham, it has been thought right to extend the usefulness of this original Permanent Society by altering one of its rules with a view to give to Borrowing Members the option of repaying their Loans at the end of 8, 10, 12, or 14 years, according to the scale following:—

Time for repayment of Loans.	Amount of Subscriptions payable Monthly in respect of an advance of £25.	Amount of Subscriptions per Annum in respect of an advance of £25.
For 8 Years and 4 Months	£0 7 0	£4 4 0
10 "	0 6 2	3 14 0
12 "	0 5 6	3 6 0
14 "	0 5 0	3 0 0

By these means this Society affords every possible opportunity and benefit to Borrowing Members.

Amongst the Advantages offered by this Original Permanent Society are the following:—

The Society is established under the provisions of a special Act of Parliament, by which means the Members have the benefit and protection of the numerous provisions of the Friendly Societies' Acts.

The Directors have power to permit a temporary suspension of payments of Borrowers who may become unable to meet their payments by sickness or other casualty.

Members may at any time sell or transfer their Shares, or dispose thereof by will; or they may, according to the rules, withdraw such Shares at once.

Borrowing Members can, at any time, redeem their mortgaged Property by paying a fixed fee mentioned in the rules, so that Members will find no hindrance in selling their Property whenever they see fit.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Members desirous of purchasing at Auctions will be enabled to do so by means of this Society, and have the deposit money provided.

The Society being a Permanent Society, Members may join at any period without making the back payments required to be made by Societies not being Permanent.

All Deeds and Receipts made in pursuance of the Rules of the Society are free from stamp duty

The Rules of the Society, and alterations making optional the time of repayment of Loans, have been duly certified by John Tidd Pratt, Esq., the Barrister at Law appointed to certify Rules of Savings' Banks.

The Monthly Meetings of the Society are held at the Offices of Mr. Lingwood, Solicitor, No. 2, Promenade Place, Clarence Street, Cheltenham, the First Monday in every Month, at Seven o'clock in the Evening.

Applications for Shares, and every other information connected with the Society, can be obtained from any of the Directors, the Solicitor, or Secretary. [11

The ASYLUM OFFICE was established in 1824, with the especial object of increasing the facilities of Life Assurance, and extending its advantages to those persons, the state of whose health, residence or travels abroad, would have caused them to be rejected by the ordinary offices.

It is strictly a Joint Stock Company, whose Funds and Shareholders are liable to the Assured, and is thus free from the difficulties and frequent insecurity of mutual Societies.

In addition to the amount of the Premiums paid, it has a SUBSCRIBED CAPITAL of £240,000, of which one-fourth is paid up and invested as a Cash Guarantee Fund.

The more prominent advantages of this Office may be stated to be—

1st. THE ASSURANCE OF THE LIVES OF HEALTHY PERSONS at Rates calculated to cover the Risk, and not, as in many offices, for the purpose of forming a surplus fund, from which only a privileged few secure any return.

2nd. THE ASSURANCE OF INVALIDS. The Premiums payable in such cases depending on the state of health and other circumstances of the particular Life to be assured, as determined upon the report of the Medical Officers.

3rd. The Assurance of the Lives of Civil, Military, or Naval Officers, and Persons travelling or resident in Foreign Countries.

4th. The permitting the Assured to pay two-thirds only of the Premium, if desired, leaving the remaining third a charge upon the Policy, at 4 per cent. interest, to be deducted from the sum assured, or repaid at the option of the party, or discontinued without payment of arrears.

5th. The adoption of a guaranteed or fluctuating scale of Premiums, either increasing or diminishing, as may be selected.

For more detailed particulars of the various modes of effecting Assurances, and other facilities which this Office affords, reference to the Prospectus is invited.

REPORTS of the RELIGIOUS and other SOCIETIES are regularly given, and the transactions of its various Public Bodies are noticed as fully as their importance may seem respectively to require; the Proceedings of the TOWN COMMISSIONERS, and all VESTRY and other PAROCHIAL MEETINGS are regularly Registered; whatever, in short, relates to Cheltenham, in the fullest sense of the word, finds a place in its Columns, due care being, at the same time, exercised to exclude everything which may unfit it for family reading. By copious extracts and careful abridgements from the principal London and Provincial Journals, a general view is afforded of all the most important and interesting events occurring, both throughout the Kingdom as well as in Foreign Countries, and the

The CHELTENHAM CHRONICLE was first established in 1809, and, with the exception of the Gloucester Journal, is the Oldest Newspaper in the County of Gloucester. Its Subscription List, which was at all times extensive for a Provincial Journal, has, within the past twelvemonths, very considerably increased, and probably at the present time includes a larger proportion of the upper and middle classes of society, in and around the place of its publication, than any other Weekly Journal. It consequently presents A MOST ELIGIBLE MEDIUM FOR ALL SUCH ADVERTISEMENTS as address themselves to those classes, as well as to the public generally.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE TEETH AND GUMS;

Simple, Efficacious, and Sanctioned by the principal Dentists in the Kingdom.

Mr. SMITH particularly recommends the daily use of his "ANTI-ACID TOOTH POWDER," for preserving and beautifying the Teeth and Gums, and for keeping the Enamel of the Teeth white, and free from the deposit of tartar.

Parties on purchasing are particularly requested to ask for that prepared by Mr. SMITH, and which has his name and address on the label, as other preparations are offered under the same name differing totally in their composition. Sold in boxes 1s. each.

His preparation of MYRRH, BORAX, and EAU DE COLOGNE is also specially recommended in all cases where there is a tendency to Tooth Ache, or where the Gums are in a spongy and tender state, or have receded from the Teeth,—the daily use of a few drops on the tooth brush will impart a positive benefit and comfort to every one who uses it, and at the same time it entirely removes that sensitive state in which Teeth generally are where the Gums have receded from them, and by daily using which they may, in a short time, be cleaned with a hard brush. Sold in Bottles 2s. 6d., 4s., and 6s. 6d.

OLD TRUNKS, &c., TAKEN IN EXCHANGE.

Tin cases, &c. for India, and every article in the Trade.

CAUTION!!

The high reputation of this Portmanteau has induced unprincipled persons to make various worthless Imitations of very thin wood, which will easily split or break, therefore bonnets are not safe in such a temporary box.

J. PARKER confidently asserts that not one Purchaser of his PATENT PORTMANTEAU ever expressed their dissatisfaction with it, but on the contrary have given it their highest approbation, nor has one ever been known to get broken: should such a thing possibly occur, he pledges himself to return the full amount paid for such Portmanteau, if within seven years after the purchase. J. P. deems this pledge requisite to avert the mischief intended by the false and malicious fabrications of envious and designing persons who are selling spurious Imitations.

NOTICE!!

This Portmanteau being Registered in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, all Persons found guilty of making or selling it, without being duly appointed by the Patentee, are liable to a penalty of £30 for each copy, and all Purchasers of the same are liable to be subpoenaed on a trial in case of a prosecution for Piracy.
