STREET GUIDE.

[In the following "Guide to the Principal Streets and Detached Residences," those Houses only have been inserted which are occupied by the Resident Gentry, or are, strictly speaking, Private Houses. The list might have been considerably extended, had it been deemed expedient to have done so, by the introduction of such Streets as are wholly, or for the most part, appropriated to the purposes of Trade; but as the names of the occupants of Houses thus circumstanced, are generally conspicuously written up, it was felt that any other Guide to their Names and Addresses than that which the General Directory afforded, was scarcely, if at all necessary.]

The Time Tables for all these are generally to be seen at any of the Coach Offices, Hotels, and Libraries of the Town.

In addition to the Public Institutions, Societies, Companies, &c., enumerated in the foregoing pages, there are also a great variety of Religious and Benevolent Branch Associations—such as the Bible, Missionary, Christian Knowledge, and other similar Societies; which not being identified in their objects with either the Town of Cheltenham or the County of Gloucester, we have not deemed it necessary to particularize, having already at page xxv. given a list of the principal of them with the names of their local Managers, &c. There are likewise several Joint Stock Trading Companies which we have omitted in this division of the ANNUAIRE, having included most of them in the Tradesmen's Directory.

PRE-PAID RATES OF POSTAGE.—Letters not exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. one penny, 1 oz. two pence, 2 ozs. four pence, and so on, two rates being added for every ounce. Inland Letters posted unpaid are charged double the pre-paid rates. Letters insufficiently paid are charged on delivery double the difference between the amount paid and the proper rate.

LIMITATION OF SIZE AND WEIGHT.—Any Letter or Packet sent by Post between places within the United Kingdom must not exceed two feet in length. The weight is unlimited, but if it exceed four ounces the postage must be pre-paid.

INLAND BOOK POST.—Book Packets containing any number of separate Books, Maps, or Prints, and any quantity of Paper, Vellum, or Parchment (to the exclusion of Letters whether sealed or open), may be forwarded by Post within the United Kingdom at the rate of 6d. a pound.

To India, Ceylon, Hong Kong, and Mauritius, at the rate of 8d. for 8 ozs. Each packet must contain one volume only.

NEWSPAPERS.

On Newspapers passing between places in the United Kingdom, any Writing or Marks are allowed, provided that a Postage of a Penny be pre-paid, by means of a Stamp conspicuously affixed outside the Cover or Folded Newspaper; and in those cases where the Newspaper may be liable to a Postage, irrespective of the Writing or Marks (as when Posted and Delivered in the same town), the Penny Stamp will cover the Writing and Postage also. This privilege is confined to Writing or Marks on the Newspaper itself. Newspapers with any Writing or Marks and not pre-paid as above ; or if pre-paid and containing any enclosure, or with any Writing or Marks on the Cover other than the address, are liable to the full rate of Postage, chargeable on Un-paid Letters of the same weight.

NEWSPAPERS TO THE COLONIES OR FOREIGN COUNTRIES must be posted within seven days after the day of publication. Newspapers containing any inclosure, or with any writing or mark, whether upon them, or upon the Covers, other than the address of the party to whom they are forwarded, are chargeable with treble the duty of Letter postage.

LETTERS FOR WARM CLIMATES NOT TO BE SEALED WITH WAX.—The practice of Sealing Letters for the East and West Indies, and other warm climates, with Wax is attended with much inconvenience, and frequently with serious injury to the Letters, in consequence of the melting of the wax, and adhesion of the Letters to each other.

ARTICLES WHICH MAY NOT BE SENT BY POST.—Letters or Packets containing any of the following inclosures, cannot be forwarded through the Post Office, viz., any Glass or Glass Bottle, any Razor, Scissors, Knife, Fork, or other sharp or pointed Instrument; any Leeches, Game, Fish, Flesh, Fruit, Vegetable, or other perishable substance; any Bladder, or other vessel containing liquid; or any Article, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, which might, by pressure or otherwise, be rendered injurious to the Officers of the Post Office, or to the contents of the Mail Bags.

REDUCTION OF FRENCH POSTAGE.—A new postal treaty has been entered into with France, the principal effect of which will be the reduction of the postage upon pre-paid letters weighing not more than $\frac{1}{4}$ oz. (a weight which includes the great majority) to 4d., instead of 8d. or 10d., as heretofore. This reduced postage of 4d. will carry the letter from any part of the United Kingdom to any part of France or Algeria. If the letter be posted unpaid, the charge will be double. Under the provisions of this treaty the postage on letters passing through England or France will also in many cases be reduced. On all these points detailed information will be issued. The new treaty will come into operation on the 1st of January.

NOTE.—In consequence of a new tariff of Foreign Postage having been issued, while the present ANNUAIRE was in the binder's hands, the tabular exhibition of Rates of Postage to the Colonies and Foreign Countries, printed for introduction, has been cancelled—the information which it contained being, by the new scale of charges, altogether incorrect.

CHELLENHAM LOOKER-ON

A Date-Book of Fashionable Sayings and Doings;

CONTAINING

WEEKLY LISTS OF THE

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES,

And a selection of such Local and General Intelligence as is calculated to interest the Residents and Visitors of Cheltenham and their Friends at a distance.

This popular little paper has now been established upwards of twenty years, and has obtained the approval and support of the affluent and educated circles of society to an extent, probably, unexampled in the annals of periodical literature—having through all the chances and vicissitudes of fashion maintained its influence unimpaired, and commanded, probably, a more extensive circulation than any other journal published in Cheltenham. This long-continued enjoyment of such unabated confidence, warrants its Publisher in introducing the LOOKER-ON to the notice of those numerous families who are in any way connected with the place, or who, from other circumstances, may not have hitherto been subscribers to the paper. By such of them as take a greater interest in the Sayings and Doings of Fashionable Life than in the strifes and contentions of political party—in which the LOOKER-ON but rarely engages—its claims to preference will not be disputed. Its attention is particularly directed to the movements of the Court—respecting which the information conveyed in its Gossip, has at all times been considered peculiarly authentic; to the Public and Private Entertainments which occur in Cheltenham and its neighbourhood; and, especially, to the procurement of as correct a List of the Arrivals and Departures which constantly take place, as it is possible to procure; the Lists published in the other papers of the town being merely re-prints of those which have previously appeared in the LOOKER-ON.

Its form, and the hour of its publication, render it peculiarly eligible for the companionship of the breakfast table; while the character of its contents, as peculiarly qualify it for introduction into the drawing room.

The LOOKER-ON is published every Saturday Morning, at Nine o'clock, at the Montpellier Library, and is delivered at the residences of subscribers as soon after as possible. An edition is printed late on Friday Night for delivery, by post, in the surrounding villages, coincidently with the delivery in the town.

The CHELTENHAM CHRONICLE is the Oldest Newspaper except one in the County of Gloucester, having been established between forty and fifty years. Its political principles are Conservative, in the correct acceptation of the term; for while on the one hand it aims at upholding the Constitution as by law established in Church and State, and is opposed to the wild innovations of inexperienced theorists who, for the realization of some possible present good, would peril those institutions which have ever in times of danger proved the bulwark and safety of the country, it desires on the other to promote every essential improvement therein. OCCURRENCES OF PUBLIC INTEREST

THAT TAKE PLACE IN

CHELTENHAM AND ITS NEIGHBOURHOOD,

whether connected with their parochial, political, or social affairs; while by copious extracts from and abridgments of the principal Metropolitan and Provincial Journals, a general review is afforded to its readers of the most important and interesting events which occur in our own or foreign countries—the intelligence being uniformly brought down to the latest possible period—due care being at all times exercised to exclude from its columns whatever is calculated to unfit them for family reading.

From the peculiar character of its circulation, the CHELTENHAM CHRONICLE affords a most

the subjects of which address themselves to the families of the nobility, the gentry, and the middle classes of the inhabitants of Cheltenham and its neighbourhood, where, it is confidently believed, ITS CIRCULATION IS AS LARGE AND ITS INFLUENCE GREATER than that of any other journal published in the district.

The Cheltenham Chronicle is published every Tuesday Afternoon, at Five o'clock, adjoining the Montpellier Library, where orders for the paper will be received, either for its delivery in Town or forwarding by Post the same Evening.
