In the preparation of the present volume considerable pains have been bestowed on the correction of the Directories forming its larger portion, which it is believed will be found more accurate than in any previous Annuaire. Many errors, the Editor is quite aware, still exist, partly from misinformation furnished in answer to his applications for corrections,—partly to changes in names and addresses occurring during the progress of printing. The Appendix and other portions of the work have also been carefully revised and rendered as correct as circumstances and the nature of the materials whereof they consist would permit.

The present Volume will be entered at Stationers' Hall with a view to a protection of its Copy-right.

Montpellier Library, Cheltenham,
January 1st, 1859.

CHELTENHAM

STREET GUIDE AND DIRECTORY.

In the following Alphabetical arrangement of the various Streets and other places of which the Town of Cheltenham consists, the situation of each is endeavoured to be indicated by reference, first, to its nearest known locality, and, secondly, to the Ward in which it is situated, so as to guide a stranger at once to the direction in which it will be found; the capital letters, E, N, W, M, and S, referring to the East, North, West, Middle, and South Wards; those thoroughfares in which two or more initials are employed being Streets along which the line of severance travels down the centre—as High Street, Portland Street, Rodney Terrace, &c.

The Directory is strictly confined to Streets inhabited either wholly or in part by the Resident Gentry—those occupied by persons engaged in trade, or by the labouring classes generally, being passed over, for the obvious reason that any attempt to furnish a correct list of their inhabitants would be as impossible as unnecessary in a work expressly designed for the use of the upper circles of society, or persons extensively engaged in trades and callings having constant intercourse therewith.
