In the preparation of this, the Twenty-fifth Volume of the CHELTENHAM ANNUAIRE AND DIRECTORY, no reasonable pains have been spared to render it as accurate as the nature of its materials would admit of. But, though every page has undergone careful revision, the compiler is quite aware that errors will frequently be detected, which no amount of diligence could obviate in localising a population so fluctuating and migratory as that of Cheltenham. Though the contents of the Volume keep annually increasing, its price has been, this year, reduced from Three Shillings and Six Pence to Half-a-Crown, in the hope that its sphere of usefulness may be increased, and an enlarged sale compensate for the loss which such a reduction must necessarily entail upon the publisher.

THE REFORMATORY,

HARDWICKE, NEAR GLOUCESTER.

Instituted 1852, and Certified by Government in 1854.

For the purpose of preventing Boys from becoming hardened in crime by a repetition of short imprisonments.

Managers { George H. Bengough, Esq., } Hardwicke, near { T. B. Ll. Baker, Esq., } Gloucester.

** It is much wished that, as a general rule, boys on a first offence should be merely committed to prison for a very short term. This is found to be effectual in checking their bad habits in about five cases out of six. In the sixth case, i.e., where a boy is again convicted, he should nearly always be sent to a Reformatory to be separated from his neighbours, as, after two or three convictions, he becomes a corruptor and instructor of others.

These are, of course, merely general rules recommended by the majority of Managers throughout England, and by the authority of the Home Office. But, if any Magistrate finds a case of first conviction unusually bad in itself—or with proof of bad habits of long existence—if he will give the Manager such reasons as the latter can shew to the Home Office, the boy will be received.

By a recent Act, boys under twelve convicted of larceny, and boys under fourteen convicted of vagrancy, can now be committed to "Industrial Schools." Two such exist in Bristol, which will probably, for some time, be able to receive all the boys of this county, viz., Park Road Industrial School, Bristol (Correspondent, Miss Carpenter, Lodge House, Bristol), and Pennywell Lane, Bristol (Correspondent, R. S. Ramsden, Esq., Victoria Square, Clifton).

These establishments are much better fitted for children under twelve than the more expensive Reformatory.

STREET GUIDE AND DIRECTORY.

In the following Alphabetical arrangement of the various Streets and other places of which the Town of Cheltenham consists, the situation of each is endeavoured to be indicated by reference, first, to its nearest known locality, and, secondly, to the Ward in which it is situated, so as to guide a stranger at once to the direction in which it will be found; the capital letters E, N, W, M, and S referring to the East, North, West, Middle, and South Wards; those thoroughfares in which two or more initials are employed being Streets along which the line of severance travels down the centre—as High Street, Portland Street, Rodney Terrace, &c.

The Directory is strictly confined to Streets inhabited either wholly or in part by the Resident Gentry—those occupied by persons engaged in trade, or by the labouring classes generally, being passed over, for the obvious reason that any attempt to furnish a correct list of their inhabitants would be as impossible as unnecessary in a work expressly designed for the use of the upper circles of society, or persons extensively engaged in trades and callings having constant intercourse therewith.

A Note-Book of the Sayings and Doings of Social, Political, and Fashionable Life:

CONTAINING ALSO

Weekly Lists of the Arrivals and Departures,

AND A SELECTION OF SUCH

LOCAL AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE

as is calculated to interest the Residents and Visitors of Cheltenham, and their friends at a distance.

This popular little Paper has now been established nearly Thirty Years, and has obtained the approval and support of the affluent and educated circles of society to an extent probably unexampled in the annals of the Provincial Press—having, through all the changes of time and vicissitudes of fashion, maintained its influence unimpaired, and commanded, probably, a more extensive local circulation than any other Newspaper published in Cheltenham. Nor will the reader find in any existing Journal of the district more authentic or earlier information relative to such matters as are likely to prove of general interest; while its notices of passing events, of the Educational and other Public Institutions, as well as of the Public Amusements, are uniformly dictated in a spirit of impartiality, and with every desire to preserve a faithful register of the Sayings and Doings of which the LOOKER-ON professes to take cognizance. Its form, and the hour of its publication, render it peculiarly eligible for the companionship of the breakfast table; while the character of its contents as peculiarly qualifies it for introduction into the drawing room.

The LOOKER-ON is published every Saturday Morning, at Nine o'clock, and is delivered at the residences of Subscribers as soon after as possible. An Edition is printed late on Friday Night for delivery in the surrounding Villages, coincidentally with the delivery in the Town; an extra penny being charged for its transmission by post.
