Some inconvenience having been experienced through the omission from last year's ANNUAIRE of the Alphabetical List of the Principal Tradespeople of Cheltenham, it has been again, after careful revision, included in the contents of the present Volume, although its introduction has necessarily increased the quantity of the letter-press, and may, possibly, hereafter render an increase in its price unavoidable.

DIRECTORY

OF THE

RESIDENT GENTRY AND TRADESPEOPLE,

WITH AN

APPENDIX

PUBLIC OFFICES AND INSTITUTIONS.

CHELLENHAM.

STREET GUIDE AND DIRECTORY.

In the following Alphabetical arrangement of the various Streets and other places of which the Town of Cheltenham consists, the situation of each is endeavoured to be indicated by reference, first, to its nearest known locality, and, secondly, to the Ward in which it is situated, so as to guide a stranger at once to the direction in which it will be found; the capital letters E, N, W, M, and S referring to the East, North, West, Middle, and South Wards; those thoroughfares in which two or more initials are employed being Streets along which the line of severance travels down the centre—as High Street, Portland Street, Rodney Terrace, &c

The Directory is strictly confined to Streets inhabited either wholly or in part by the Resident Gentry—those occupied by persons engaged in trade, or by the labouring classes generally, being passed over, for the obvious reason that any attempt to furnish a correct list of their inhabitants would be as impossible as unnecessary in a work expressly designed for the use of the upper circles of society, or persons extensively engaged in trades and callings having constant intercourse therewith.

As is calculated to interest the Residents and Visitors of Cheltenham as well as their Friends at a distance.

This popular little paper has been now established upwards of Thirty-four Years, and has obtained the approval and support of the affluent and educated circles of Society to an extent wholly unexampled in the annals of the Provincial Press; having, through all the changes of time and vicissitudes of fashion, maintained its influence unimpaired, and commanded, probably, a more extensive local circulation than any other Newspaper published in Cheltenham. Nor will the reader find in any existing Journal of the district more authentic or earlier information relative to such matters as are likely to prove of general interest; while its notices of passing events, of the Educational and other Public Institutions, as well as of the Public Amusements of the Town, are uniformly dictated in a spirit of impartiality, and with every desire to preserve a faithful register of the Sayings and Doings of which the LOOKER-ON professes to take cognizance. Its form, and the hour of its publication, render it peculiarly eligible for the companionship of the breakfast table; while the character of its contents as peculiarly qualifies it for introduction into the drawing room.

The LOOKER-ON is published every Saturday Morning, at Nine o'clock, and is delivered at the residence of Subscribers as soon after as possible. An Edition is printed late on Friday Night for delivery in the surrounding Villages, coincidentally with the delivery in the Town; an extra penny being charged for its transmission by post.

CHELTENHAM CHRONICLE

AND

Parish Register.

PROPRIETOR—HENRY J. COCHRANE.

OFFICES—27, CLARENCE STREET.

This well-established FAMILY NEWSPAPER—the Oldest except one in the County of Gloucester—having recently passed into New Management, its Proprietor desires to introduce it anew to the notice of the Residents and Visitors of Cheltenham, assuring its present Subscribers that no change whatever will take place in its political principles, nor in the efforts of its conductors to uphold the Constitution as by law established in Church and State.

While, however, aspiring to the approval and support of those who believe that the happiness and prosperity of all classes and orders of Society are best attained by a practical expression of Conservative views, the especial aim of the CHELTENHAM CHRONICLE will be to preserve a record of all events and occurrences of public interest, without reference to party, but chiefly will it aspire to be found worthy of admission into the family circle, it being the determination of its Proprietor to admit no article into its columns which may tend to pollute the mind of the reader, or sap the foundations of Christianity.

The General Intelligence of the Paper will be brought down to as late an hour as possible, and under this head will be included the political news of the week, and such other subjects as are of current interest.

The CHELTENHAM CHRONICLE is published every TUESDAY MORNING, at Ten o'clock, at 27, Clarence Street, and will be delivered at the Residence of Subscribers in any part of the town as soon after that hour as possible.

Advertisements are particularly requested before 5 p.m. on Monday.
