THOMAS BUTCHER & Co.,
PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMISTS,
418, HIGH STREET, CHELTENHAM,

BEG respectfully to submit to your notice the following Select Preparations. They are all compounded under their personal superintendence, without regard to trouble or expense ; most of them have been in use a quarter of a century ; and from the testimony they have received of their worth they fully believe them equal to any preparations that have ever been introduced to the public for their respective uses.

BUTCHER'S DIGESTIVE AND TONIC PILLS

Have been in use since 1847. They are a safe and valuable FAMILY MEDICINE, and are found singularly beneficial in removing INDIGESTION, BILE, COSTIVENESS, FLATULENCE, GIDDINESS, SPASMS, PAINS IN THE CHEST, HEAD-ACHE. &c. In Boxes, 1s 1½d, and 2s 9d each.

BUTCHER'S SWEET ESSENCE OF SENNA

Is a safe and valuable Aperient ; being prepared with great care, and deprived of all unpleasant flavour, it is particularly adapted for Children. In Bottles, 1s and 2s each

BUTCHER'S ESSENCE OF QUININE

Possesses all the tonic and febrifuge qualities of the finest Peruvian Bark in an agreeable and highly concentrated state : and is particularly recommended in cases of nervous debility and general weakness. In Bottles, 1s 4d and 2s 6d each.

BUTCHER'S TOOTHACHE ELIXIR

Gives immediate relief in nearly every case, even after other remedies have failed ; and does not in any way injure the Teeth. In Bottles, 1s 1½d each.

BUTCHER'S PLATE POWDER

Is a very superior preparation. It produces a brilliant and permanent polish with very little trouble, and does not in any way injure the plate. In Boxes, 1s and 2s 6d each.

BUTCHER'S GLYCERINE POMADE

Is the best preparation for improving the growth and beauty of the hair, and for preventing its becoming prematurely grey. In Bottles, 1s each.

BUTCHER'S GLYCERINE HAIR WASH

For cleansing the hair and keeping the roots in a healthy condition. If used in conjunction with the GLYCERINE POMADE, it will rarely fail to produce a healthy head of hair. In Bottles, 1s each.

BUTCHER'S SKIN SOAP

Possesses in an eminent degree the property of softening the skin. It is very moderate in price, pleasant to use, and durable. 3d. per square, or five squares 1s.

BUTCHER'S CHELTENHAM BOUQUET

Has long enjoyed the most distinguished patronage, its delicacy and persistence having from the first recommended it as a valuable addition to the Toilet. In Bottles, 1s 6d each.

BUTCHER'S ANTISEPTIC TOOTH POWDER

Prepared from the recipe of RICHARD ROGERS, Esq., one of our most eminent Dentists, and especially recommended by him for cleansing and preserving the Teeth In Boxes, 1s each.

BUTCHER'S ASTRINGENT TOOTH TINCTURE

Is a very valuable remedy for tender or sore Gums. Prepared from the recipe of RICHARD ROGERS, Esq. In Bottles, 1s each.

F. WOOD'S
 WHITE ROSE LOTION
 FOR THE SKIN.

This excellent Preparation instantly allays irritability of the Skin, removing all Pimples, Freckles, Eruptions, etc. It counteracts the effects of Sunburn, and applied to the hands and face after exposure to the heat of Summer or the cold winds of Winter will be found delightfully cool and refreshing. Being free from anything of a greasy nature, and containing nothing injurious to the skin, it will be hailed as a welcome addition to the Toilet.

Sold in Bottles 1s., 2s. 6d., and 5s. each by the Proprietor.

“ MARK YOUR LINEN ”
 WITH WOOD'S INK,
 AND AVOID THEFT & LOSS.

WOOD'S MARKING INK

Is superior to any other kind! Requiring no preparation, it is always ready for use, and, unlike many of the so-called Marking Inks, does NOT BURN HOLES in the finest Fabric, or wash out, but remains permanently JET Black, so that an Article once marked is marked for ever.

THE INK WILL KEEP GOOD IN ANY CLIMATE.

Sold in 6d. and 1s. Bottles.

HENRY WILKINS, M.P.S.,

(Late Gunstone and Wilkins,)

QUALIFIED DISPENSING AND FAMILY CHEMIST,357, HIGH STREET,

(Corner of Clarence Street, CHELTENHAM.)

Special attention is given at this establishment for the manufacture of Pharmaceutical Preparations, which are prepared in exact conformity with the "British Pharmacopœias" authorised by the General Medical Council of the United Kingdom, and pursuant to the Act of Parliament, 1858.

The Dispensing of Prescriptions is conducted with the utmost care, being attended to solely by the Proprietor, and the purest Drugs and Chemicals are selected for this purpose.

W. H. would invite the attention of the inhabitants of Cheltenham and Neighbourhood to his well-apportioned Premises, where is always kept a very large assortment of all the Sundry Articles peculiar to the Retail Department of a general Chemist and Druggist's shop, Catalogues of which are supplied on application.

Every Patent Medicine in existence is also here obtainable.

The following Preparation, which H. W. recommends with confidence, has now become an important adjunct to this branch of the trade, and is quite A NEW DISCOVERY.

A REAL HAIR RESTORER!

This Preparation will undoubtedly restore Grey Hair to its original colour, without injury to its natural constituents, will increase the growth, cleanse it, and arrest any propensity to baldness. It contains nothing that could be absorbed into the system by continual use, rendering it quite harmless to health, and hence its advantage over other preparations sold for this purpose.

IT IS NOT A DYE, but changes the colour of the Hair gradually by acting upon the roots and supplying them with that capillary element which nature in so many cases is unable to sustain, at the same time nourishing and strengthening them and preventing the Hair from falling off. Among the numerous Testimonials which have been received to prove the efficacy of this preparation, the following is a specimen and can be relied upon. Mrs. H., of Hewlett Street, Cheltenham, says:—

"I was getting quite grey and losing my hair; I noticed it first at Weston, after I had that attack of rheumatic fever, but I used your lotion every morning for a week or two, and now I have more hair than I had before my illness, and it's not the least grey. My husband uses it now. His hair was getting grey, but the stuff soon brought it right again. I would recommend it to anybody, and if you like to use this as a testimonial you may, only don't put my name in the papers."

Sold in large Bottles at 2s. each, and forwarded to any Railway Station, carriage paid, for 3s. 6d. with instructions for use (one bottle guaranteed to be effective).

EXPERIENCE OF EDWARD BAINES, ESQ., EX-M.P., AS RELATED BY HIM AT EXETER HALL.

Wishing to save a man addicted to drink from impending ruin, and knowing that persuasion would be useless without example, I resolved to try total abstinence for a month. Finding myself just as well at the end of the month as at the beginning, I repeated the experiment for a second month, and with the same satisfactory result. It then occurred to me that it would be useful to know how long I could dispense with strong liquor without affecting my health and strength. But I had to wait a long time for the final conclusion of this experiment, and I have not yet arrived at it. More than forty years have passed, and I declare that I have the same elasticity, in the year 1877, that I had in the year 1837. I find that He who made the human frame made it so wisely that it does not need the stimulus of beverages which, when taken in excess, blind the reason, inflame the blood, sow the seeds of disease, and implant an unconquerable craving for the fatal poison. The kitchen and the dairy, with the cheering and fragrant drinks which we owe to China and the Indies, supply every want of animal life, and keep all ~~the~~ springs in motion. To the doctor it speaks volumes when I say that I never sit down to table without an appetite, and never rise from bed with a headache. When I hear total abstainers designated as ascetics, I smile at the ignorant blunder, because it has always been my firm conviction that I enjoy the pleasures of the palate much more than if I had taken wine of any kind or in any quantity; and for this good reason, that the digestive organs are in a healthier state than they would have been with that indulgence.

If examined as to my mode of life, I may humbly and thankfully say that it has been one of no small activity, at first as a pretty close student, and afterwards having taken part in the public questions and controversies that have stirred one of the most exciting periods of our history. After many years of editorial and political work, I was called, at the age of fifty-nine, to enter Parliament; where I spent fifteen years in charge of a great borough, and taking interest in the concerns of the empire, through several eventful Parliaments. When I entered the House of Commons, I was told by one of my predecessors that I should not be able to go through the business without the help of wine. My judicious medical adviser knew better; he did not recommend any alcoholic drink, and only laid upon me one injunction—namely, that whatever late hours the House might keep, I should every night lie in bed seven hours. The advice was worth more to me than all the wine in the London Docks. Not one glass of wine or ale ever touched my lips; and, in consequence—not in spite of it, but in consequence, I say—I was able to do almost as much work as any man in the House. I am perfectly certain—every organ of my body and function of my mind tell me—that I should have been much more likely to suffer from Parliamentary worry, from late hours, hurried meals, bad air, party strife, and anxious responsibilities, with wine, even in moderate quantity, than without it. I left Parliament absolutely unscathed, and all but unworn. I need scarcely say that this simple statement owes whatever value it may possess to the fact that it disproves the necessity or usefulness of alcoholic drinks to the human frame, and therefore to men in general as well as to me; of wine or ale were needful, as so many men and women imagine, to help them through the hours from breakfast to dinner, or through a moderate railway journey, I should have found it out long since. If these drinks were necessary to make blood, or muscle, or nerve, or sinew, or bone, I must, for want of them, have experienced constant deterioration, and by this time have wasted away. If they even imparted cheerfulness, or inspired thought, or kindled affection, I must without them have dried up into a log. How can it be accounted for that, well advanced in the eighth decade of life, my pulse beats as firmly, that I walk up hill nearly as fast, and that I play with my grandchildren as merrily, as ever?

But if my testimony should be disregarded, I believe there are thousands who have abstained from liquor as long or longer than I have, and who would give the same testimony to the well-working of the regimen. And if we go to the Eastern world, we shall find hundreds of millions of lifelong abstainers, and among them many of the finest races upon the earth. I have asserted, perhaps to the astonishment of the moderate drinker, that the total abstainer has more enjoyment of the palate than he could receive from the choicest wines. But he will perhaps be still more astonished if I assert that the moderate drinker is compelled to practice far more of painful self-denial than the teetotaler. Yet I do assert it unhesitatingly. If any propositions are beyond question, they are these, that wine is the most seductive of drinks, and that the thirst for it grows stronger with indulgence. Therefore, the moderate drinker, if he continues moderate, has every day to put a constraint upon himself, and to deny himself in that which he enjoys most keenly. He is constantly tempted to go beyond moderation into excess, and without knowing the boundary line where safety ends and danger begins. He has "looked on the wine when it was red;" he has drunk of the Circean cup; and how to tear himself from its enchantment he knows not. I put him on the horns of this dilemma. If his enjoyment of the cup is great, his danger in tasting it and his pain in leaving it are proportionately great. If, on the contrary, his enjoyment is trifling, why, for a trifling pleasure, should he run any risk at all? The abstainer, on the other hand, has never landed on Circe's isle; has never tasted her cup of sorceries; and he no more craves it than he craves a thing unthought of or unknown. Or if at any former time he should have fallen into that swinish bondage, he has now escaped; and, unless he is demented, he is too grateful for the deliverance again to dally with the sorceress, or to think of her without dread and disgust.

By taking strong liquors, he not only continues in danger himself, but he sets an example that may be fatal to others. A professional gentleman once followed me at a temperance meeting, and said that he was older than I was, yet he had lived as a moderate drinker. He thought the reply was conclusive; but it was not. He died a moderate drinker, but I dare not tell how many of his children became confirmed drunkards. Could he have foreseen this, he would not for worlds have touched the drink. I fear there are not many families in England from which the demon of intemperance has not selected one or more victims; and it is said that the annual sacrifice of precious lives and souls by this vice may be reckoned by scores of thousands. If this be so, is it considerate, is it humane, is it Christian, to continue the practice which leads to issues so dreadful?

GOODYEAR'S POCKET GYMNASIUM

OR

HEALTH - PULL.

We deem it highly important that every family in the land should become familiar with the advantages to be derived from the use of the POCKET GYMNASIUM.

The extraordinary success which has marked the introduction of Goodyear's American Pocket Gymnasium in America, the universality of its use among all classes, the high encomiums it is continually receiving from various sources, unsought and unsolicited, have prompted us to invite the special attention of the European public to its salient features, assured that a knowledge of its advantages and utility will ensure it a liberal patronage. The faculty of America, in its most distinguished representative capacity, have not only commended it in unqualified laudations, but have voluntarily embodied it in their medical advice to their patients, urging its use as an essentially sanitary measure, and relying on it for the development of a vigorous physical condition and improved muscular strength.

Actuated by these considerations, we confidently present it to the people of Great Britain, impressed with the conviction that it will soon popularize itself and take as firm a hold on public approbation here as it has unquestionably done in the United States.

Physicians of all schools are now of one mind with regard to certain leading physiological principles, however they may differ with regard to remedial agencies. All admit that three things are ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY to vigorous health—viz. GOOD AIR, GOOD FOOD, GOOD EXERCISE; and that with either of these lacking, the natural powers of BODY AND MIND are rapidly diminishing.

To provide the two first various intelligent agencies are at work. Our province is to provide the simplest and MOST PERFECT MEANS FOR INCREASING VIGOUR THROUGH EXERCISE.

THE MOVEMENTS employed in using the POCKET GYMNASIUM are many and graceful. They are adapted to the old and young of both sexes and of all degrees of muscular development. The feeble invalid may use them in a small way, and gain new strength day by day. The little child may be taught some graceful movements, and will rapidly acquire strength of limb, erectness of posture, and the rosy tint of health. The mother, the father, brothers and sisters, each member of the household, will employ these life-giving tubes with keen satisfaction and increasing benefit. THEY SHOULD BE IN EVERY HOME IN THE LAND. Our intention is to give every intelligent person an opportunity to fully understand this beneficent system of exercise, and to secure HEALTH AND STRENGTH by employing it. In this good work we have the co-operation of scores of the best people—ministers, doctors, heads of hospitals, editors, and public men. Physicians recommend it to patients and secure for it recognition as a valuable adjunct to remedial measures. Teachers commend it to pupils and instruct them in its use. Whole families are supplying themselves with these beautiful appliances, and are setting apart an evening hour for mutual exercise with THE POCKET GYMNASIUM.

ASHWORTH'S PATENT "METALLIC COMB-BRUSH."
TESTIMONIALS.

" 243, Clowes Street, West Gorton, April 16th, 1877.
I have tried the 'Metallic Comb-Brush,' and consider it superior to the bristle-brush in many respects, being cooler and more agreeable to use, besides being firm and elastic.
ANDREW VEITCH, M.D., L.R.C.S."

" 2, York Street, Ardwick, Manchester, April 6th, 1877.
As a novel and necessary adjunct to every toilet table, I know nothing at all equal to Ashworth's Patent Machine-made 'Metallic Comb-Brush.' It supersedes anything I have ever used. I regard it as a real treasure, whose value must be recognized by all who have experienced its refreshing, agreeable, salutary, and beneficial effects, which are all the most sanguine could wish.

THOS. FORSTER KER, L.F.P.S., L.M.
Author of "Voices for Progress," "Observations on Perfumery," &c.

" Clarenceville, Longsight, April 22nd, 1877.
I am delighted with your 'Metallic Comb-Brush,' and have already recommended it to several of my patients and friends. WM. C. MATTHEWS, M.R.C.S., L.S.A., L.M."

These brushes possess the penetrating power of the ordinary Comb, and the elasticity of the Bristle Brush combined; hence its name "COMB-BRUSH."

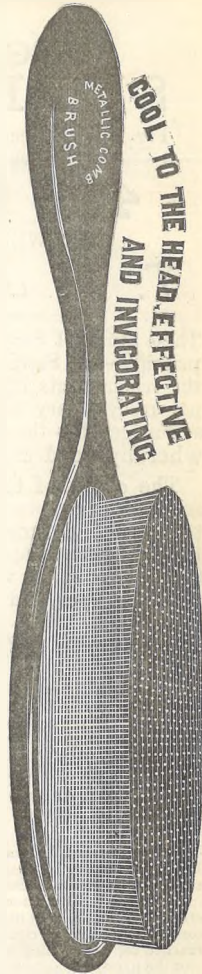

Contrary to what its appearance might suggest, it will be found exceedingly pleasant in use, imparting a most refreshing and agreeable sensation to the head; and in many cases—by exciting circulation—relieving headache and other distressing pains. It is also an excellent cleanser, and will effectually remove "scurf," and other articles of decayed skin, which prove so injurious to the growth and preservation of the hair. Moreover, the wires being tinned over the Brush can be washed as often as desirable in warm water without fear of rust.

The Brush will be found a most valuable adjunct to every nursery and ladies' toilet table. Possessing as it does the penetrating power to pierce the most luxuriant hair, it can be used when the ordinary bristle brush for its weakness would not avail, and where the comb for its rigidity would not be pleasant or desirable to use.

The Brushes are produced by perfectly self-acting machinery, recently invented and made by us, and upon which—with the method of securing the Brushes to the handles, we have obtained letters-patent. Having also made self-acting machinery for shaping out the handles, we are enabled, not only to offer them at a low price, but also to place in the market an article which no hand labour could excel, or even equal, for neatness of make and finish. The handles, it will be noticed, are in solid pieces, and can therefore be washed in warm water without the danger of separating or falling apart, that which would happen in ordinary brush handles covered with "veneer."

Make a trial of the "METALLIC COMB-BRUSH," and judge of its merits in actual use.

May be obtained from the agents, A. LUSTY and CO., 13, DUNALLEY PARADE, CHELTENHAM; or from F. WOOD, Chemist and Druggist, 18, CLARENCE STREET, CHELTENHAM. Price 2s. 6d. A stronger Brush for Horses, Dogs, Cattle, &c., 3s. 6d.

T. R. JACKSON, Proprietor.

These Stores of Supply are based and conducted on the Co-operative principle—the Smallest Profit for Cash payment, with a view to meet the requirements of a class of Customers who are able and willing to pay ready money for their goods, and reasonably expect to receive full advantages for the same, thereby doing away with the system whereby good customers are made to pay for the bad.

The object of this List is to excite enquiry and comparison and show to customers generally where all goods (not a special few to attract, delude, and deceive) of the highest quality and known best brands are supplied for Cash, as this Price List Current will show, that a direct saving to the Customer of from 10 to 50 per cent. on prices usually charged, and for which a very inferior class of goods is often substituted.

TESTIMONIAL.

We, the undersigned, being anxious to give Mr. Jackson some tangible proof of our appreciation of his pluck, in having single handed, and in the face of great opposition, introduced the system of "Co-operation" into the Grocery Trade, beg to call the attention of the Public to the Testimonial, and hope for their cordial support. Services like these, meeting with deserved recognition, will doubtless induce other tradesmen to follow his good example, and thus reduce the price of other articles of consumption.

See Advertisement in Cheltenham "Looker-On," April 26th, 1875, for List of Names of upwards of 100 of the best Families in Gloucestershire.

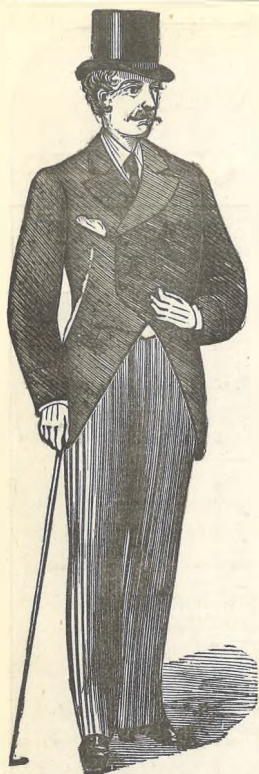

Several unprincipled traders having copied our style in order to mislead, we invite the Public to compare and test our Price and Quality, which will be found from 10 to 50 per cent. cheaper, for a far Superior Quality of Goods.

NOTICE.—We find it necessary to caution the Public in sending orders, by letter or otherwise, to be careful in ordering goods, to observe our Name and Address, as we are constantly receiving complaints from intending Customers whose orders have never reached us, either being inaccurately addressed or delivered, and which we have traced into the hands of unscrupulous traders near, who have neither the quality or class of Goods to supply.

Observe the Name and Note the Number :—
