PREFACE.

Several causes have contributed to the delay in issuing this year's Annuaire—one, the occurrence of the General Election in December last, which practically monopolised for several weeks the energies of its Editorial and Printing Staff, which would otherwise have been devoted to this work; another, that the book has again been enlarged by a much extended Classified Trades List.

The great development of building speculation in Cheltenham of late years, has added hundreds of new houses such as come within the scope of this work—such scope being now as wide as a ten-pounds rateable value—and there is a distinct tendency to build these new cottages in pairs and give each a separate name—those ending in “ville” being most in favour. For example, our Detached House List shows no fewer than nine “Maryville’s” and seven “Roseville’s,” and numerous other examples of this craze could be quoted. This sort of thing means to the Directory compiler a great deal of extra sub-division, which all takes time.

A book of this description packed tightly with local matter, and comprising as it does now, over eight hundred pages, entails an amount of careful detail work and wearisome editorial supervision that we are afraid the general public who purchase it in its completed form does not sufficiently understand.

Twenty years ago the Annuaire was composed of three hundred and fifty pages of widely spread out matter, much of it of a national and not of a local character. Ten years later it had developed into six hundred and forty pages and, last year, still further into close upon eight hundred.

The Annuaire is an old established institution in Cheltenham, that its proprietor and editor has always endeavoured to maintain at the highest level of efficiency possible in such a publication. A careful reading of the Index will give some idea of the many matters on which information is likely to be needed, apart from the various lists constituting the Directory proper.

Some of the more important alterations that have occurred during the course of printing are notified in an “Addenda.”

WILLIAM J. CRAWFORD.

IN THE

COUNTY OF GLOUCESTER,
1911.

The following List must not be regarded as a complete County Directory. It is, however, a fairly comprehensive selection of the Principal Residents—Private, Professional, and Official—in the County, other than those in the City of Bristol, and Charlton Kings and Leckhampton, the latter of which will be found in the Cheltenham List.

The difficulties of compiling a list embracing such a large area, except with the courteous aid of the persons concerned, are many; and the expense heavy. Every opportunity for correction has been given and every effort made to ensure accuracy. As no such compact list can be found elsewhere, the Editor would welcome any corrections or criticisms that would lead to its greater usefulness.

CHURCHES.

Parish Church.

Dates back to late Norman times, 1150 A.D. To this period belong the arches of the Tower and part of the West Wall of the Church. The south transept and arches of the chancel are of the Early English period 1260 A.D. The Chancel and the Arches of the South and North Transept belong to the Decorated period between 1300 and 1377 A.D. Later still and in the Perpendicular Style, about 1500 A.D., is the North Porch, originally one of the entrances to the Church. Above it is an ancient parvise or priest chamber. The Vestry and South Porch are modern.

The Windows have all had modern glass inserted dating between 1876 and 1890. The tracery is of the Decorated period, the most notable being that of the North transept, and of the Rose Window. There are scraps of ancient glass in the Vestry window. The Rose Window is famous in the North Transept, and is mentioned in the principal books on Architecture.

Hours of Service: 11 a.m., 3 p.m. for Men, and 6.30 p.m. Holy Communion (Choral) at 8 a.m. on the first Sunday in the Month; also on the 3rd and 5th Sundays. At 12.15 p.m. on the 2nd and 4th Sundays. At 7.45 p.m. on the 2nd Sunday. On Saints' days at 12 noon. Matins daily at 11 a.m., except Saturdays.

St. Matthew's Church.

DELANCEY HOSPITAL.

This Hospital, towards which a sum of money was given by the heirs-at-law of the late Miss Delancey, was built by private subscriptions—and mainly by the large contributions of the late Rev. J. H. L. Gabell and Charles Wilson.

It contains separate Blocks for Small-Pox, Scarlet Fever, Diphtheria and Typhoid patients (comprising private and public rooms), together with an Administrative block for the staff and friends of patients.

The Hospital depends upon payment by patients, and upon voluntary subscriptions, for support.

Glyngarth Preparatory School, DOURO ROAD, CHELTENHAM.

MR. BERTRAM AUDEN, M.A.,
CANTAB.,

Prepares Boys at Glyngarth from six to fourteen years of age for entrance to the Public Schools, for Scholarships, and for the Royal Navy.

Glyngarth is situated in the healthiest part of Cheltenham, and within five minutes' walk of Malvern Road Station, on the G.W.R. line. The Midland Station is within ten minutes' walk.

The House and Buildings were erected for a Boys' School. There is an excellent Schoolroom, 50 ft. by 26 ft., of lofty dimensions. All the rooms are lofty, well lighted, and well ventilated. The House is warmed throughout by a system of hot-water pipes. A Sanitary Certificate is held and renewed annually.

The domestic arrangements are under the control of, and individual attention to the boys is undertaken by, MRS AUDEN, assisted by an experienced Matron.

The subjects for instruction are those necessary for boys entering the Classical, Military, and Modern sides of a Public School. Special arrangements are made for Modern Language pupils. There are no two consecutive hours of work, and the work is graded so as to suit the boys between the ages of six and fourteen. The classes are small, so that each boy receives the requisite individual attention from the resident masters and the resident governess.

Day Boys are exactly on the same footing as Boarders with respect to the School life and games.

Within the grounds is a large Cricket and Football field.
