BISHOP'S CLEEVE is a township, parish and extensive village, forming with its hamlets the hundred of Cleeve; it is on the road from Cheltenham to Evesham, 1½ miles north-east from the Cleeve station of the London, Midland & Scottish railway and 3½ north from Cheltenham and 119 from London. A new line was opened 1st June, 1906, by the Great Western Railway Co. from Cheltenham to Honeybourne, and has a station close to the village and another at Gotherington, about 1 mile from the village. Bishop's Cleeve is in the Cirencester and Tewkesbury parliamentary division of the county of Gloucester, rural district, union and county court district of Winchcombe, petty sessional division of Cheltenham rural deanery, of Tewkesbury and archdeaconry and diocese of Gloucester. The church of St. Michael is a large cruciform structure of stone, mostly in the Norman style, with some later additions, and consisting of chancel, nave of three bays, aisles, transepts, a noble south porch of curious workmanship and an embattled central tower with pinnacles, containing a clock and 6 bells with chimes; there is a handsome marble monument with two recumbent effigies to the De la Bere family, dating from 1735 to 1742, and restored in 1803 by Thomas Baghott De la Bere esq.: in the south transept, in a recess, is the recumbent effigy of a knight, cross-legged, and still bearing traces of colouring: at the east end of the south aisle is a recumbent effigy of a nun, and there are remains of mural paintings on the wall of the north aisle: in 1898 a stained window was erected to commemorate the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria, and there is also a memorial window to Arthur Henry Jones Carroll, d. 1890, and another erected by Miss S. E. Meadows, of Blockley, and a memorial brass to the Rev. William Lawrence, 56 years rector of this parish, d. 1883: the beautiful triptych in this church, painted by Eadie Reid was given by the widow of the Rev. B. F. Hemming M.A. curate here 1871-83 and rector of the parish 1883-95: in 1912 a stained window was placed in the north aisle by the Rev. Thomas Jesson LL.B. a former rector: at the west end is a handsome carved oak gallery, and a massive oak chest with three heavy locks: the church has been restored since 1897 at a cost of about £4,000: there are 350 sittings. The register dates from the year 1563. The living is a rectory, with the hamlet of Stoke Orchard annexed, joint net yearly value £1,100, including 45 acres of glebe, with residence; it is in the gift of Miss Hemming, and has been held since 1919 by the Rev. Nigel Mackenzie Morgan-Brown M.A. of Keble College, Oxford. The Bishops of Worcester formerly resided in the house now occupied by the rector. There is a Wesleyan Methodist chapel. In the village is an ancient tithe barn in good preservation, and a memorial to the men connected with the parish who fell in the Great War, 1914-18. There is a common of 1,200 acres, over which the inhabitants of Bishop's Cleeve, Southam and Woodmancote have commonable rights. The remains of an entrenchment, called "The Camps," still exist on Cleeve Cloud. The charities, derived chiefly from money invested in the Funds, are now of the yearly value of about £27, which is distributed among the poor of the parish by the trustees. Southam-de-la-Bere, formerly the seat of the Earl of Ellenborough, is an ancient building which Leland says was built in the reign of Henry VII.;

it is charmingly seated and commands exquisite views of the vale of Gloucester and the Malvern Hills, and now occupied by Mrs. Ratcliff. Cleeve Grange is the property and residence of Capt. Walter C. Steele M.C.; and Cleeve House of Mrs. W. Lascelles. The manorial rights are held by Mrs. Noblett, who is the principal landowner. The soil is strong loam; subsoil, gravelly mixture. The chief crops are wheat, beans, barley and seeds. The area of the entire parish is 8,150 acres, principally township, 1,297; rateable value, £4,025; the population of the township in 1911 was 657 and in 1921, 615; the population of the ecclesiastical parish in 1911 was 1,966 and in 1921, 1,979.

GOTHERINGTON is a hamlet about a mile north, with a station, 1 mile from the village, on the Great Western railway from Cheltenham to Honeybourne. There is a Presbyterian chapel here. Area of township, 1,643 acres; rateable value, £2,443; the population in 1911 was 369 and in 1921, 341.

SOUTHAM, $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles south-south-east, and Brockhampton, $1\frac{1}{2}$ south-west and $2\frac{1}{2}$ north-east from Cheltenham, form a township, to which parts of Bishop's Cleeve and Woodmancote have been added. The township is in the Cirencester and Tewkesbury parliamentary division of the county of Gloucester, rural district, union and county court district of Winchcombe and petty sessional division of Cheltenham. The Norman chapel here, which formerly belonged to a Religious house, and was restored by the 4th Baron Ellenborough, is a small building of stone: it contains several memorial brasses and stained windows and a handsome marble font: near the church are remains of a monastery; the original tithe barn and almshouse still exist. Area of township, 3,368 acres; rateable value, £4,966; the population in 1911 was 344 and in 1921, 361.

Letters for this place should have Prestbury, Gloucestershire added

WOODMANCOTE is a township, 1 mile east, to which Bushcombe Lane, taken from Bishop's Cleeve, was added by Local Government Board Order 14,693, March 25, 1883. There is a Presbyterian chapel and a chapel of the Countess of Huntingdon's Connexion. Area of township, 983 acres; rateable value, £4,169; the population in 1911 was 462 and in 1921, 538. Letters for this place should have Cleeve Hill, Gloucestershire added

CLEEVE HILL, lying 1,130 feet above sea level, is a district partly in Southam and partly in Woodmancote parishes; it is popular as a place of residence. St. Peter's chapel of ease here was opened in 1907 and will seat 170 persons; the services are conducted by the clergy from Bishop's Cleeve. There is also an undenominational church, erected in 1901, with 100 sittings. The Cheltenham Golf Club has links here. The Cotswold Hills Golf Club has an 18-hole course here, about 2 miles from Cleeve Hill station: it was established in 1902 and has 270 members: entrance fee, gentlemen, £2 2s.; ladies, £1 11s. 6d.: subscription, gentlemen, playing members, £2 10s.; county members, £1 5s.; ladies, playing members, £1 10s.; county members, £1 5s.; visitors, 2s. 6d. per day, 10s. per week, 25s. per month: Saturdays previous to and public holidays 5s. per day: secretary, A. L. Morris. Courtauld's Private Convalescent Home is situated here; the premises were erected in 1892 and enlarged in 1908; there are now beds for 20 patients.
