ONE FOR THE WOMENFOLK.

While a man willing to do your work is one of the rarest things found nowadays in a country village, there is invariably a woman—often more than one—who is jack-of-all-trades and can turn her hand to almost anything that wants doing.—“Girl's Own Paper.”

Three sons were born to the wife of Matthew Pattison, an engineer, of Blackheath-road, Greenwich, on Monday morning, and mother and children are doing well.
