A STROUD CENTENARIAN.

On Wednesday Mrs. Mary Shelton, of Stroud, completed her 100th year. In the photograph she is shown with her son, Mr. Edward Shelton, art dealer, of King-street, Stroud, and her grandson. The latter on the same day entered Marling School, and so increased the number of its boys to 100—a figure it has never attained before. Mrs. Shelton was born at Epney, near Gloucester, and has lived in Gloucester, Cheltenham, and London. She has not had a doctor since her son was born, and although rather deaf is in full possession of her faculties. She attended Framilode regatta last year, and hopes to do so again this year. She attends personally at Stroud Post-office to draw her old-age pension.

CHELTONIAN IN SAN FRANCISCO.

The store owned by Mr. Edward B. Preston in San Francisco. Mr. Preston is on right, behind counter. He was formerly with Mr. Sadler, of Tivoli, and his home is in Cheltenham. He left Cheltenham in June, 1910, going first to Alameda, and then became manager of a grocery department in 'Frisco, opening his own store in March this year. He says the Panama Exposition of 1915, which is to be held in San Francisco, will surpass anything of its kind if the 'Frisicans have their way, and "they do know how to hustle."

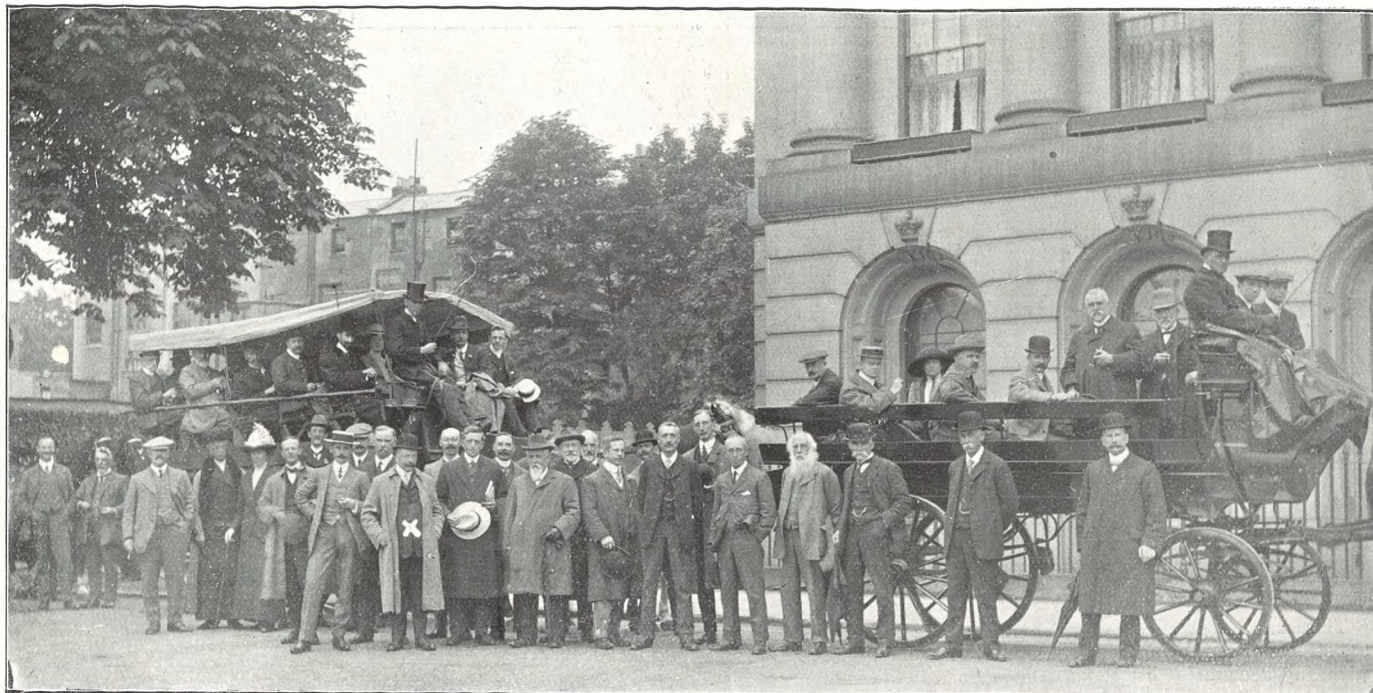

MR. J. W. BARRELL,

President of the Charlton Kings Men's Guild, who has been called up to rejoin the Metropolitan Police as inspector, on account of the transport workers' strike.

It was stated at the sitting of the Welsh Congregational Union on Tuesday that there were fifteen Welsh Congregational ministers in receipt of less than £40 a year and 105 of less than £80 a year. An effort is being made to secure a minimum wage of £80 a year for all their ministers.

REV. WYNEYARDE A. WARNER,

Who has just been presented with the living of Toddington.

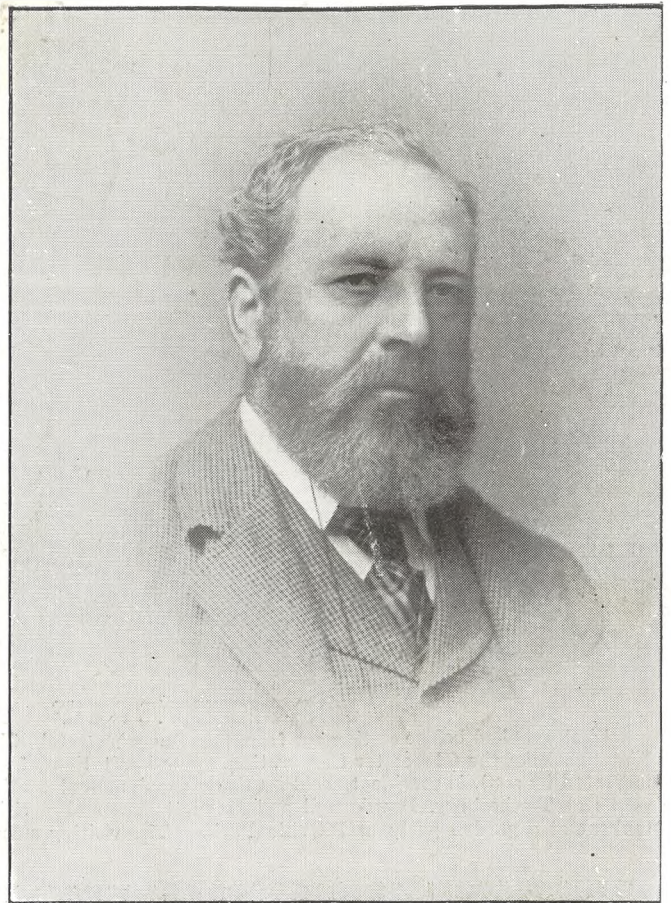

Chester Corporation, who have adopted a scheme for generating electricity by water power obtained from the River Dee on the site of the historic Dee Mills, received on Tuesday the sanction of the Local Government Board. The electricity supply thus obtained will be auxiliary to the supply derived from the Corporation's power station, and it is estimated that a considerable economy will be effected as compared with extending the existing works.

DOES ANYONE KNOW THIS MAN ?

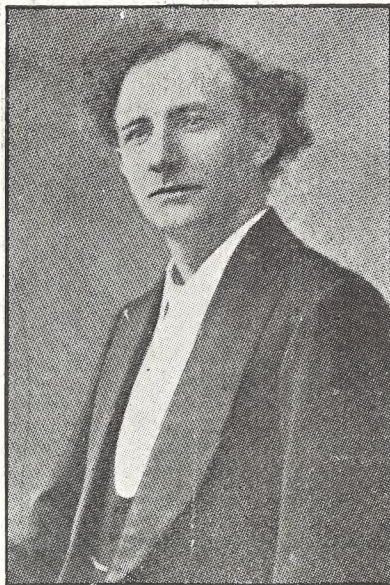

This man, a stranger to Cheltenham, was found wandering in the streets of the town about three weeks ago, and being unable to give any account of himself, was taken to the Workhouse, where he now is. Although apparently in good health, doing his appointed tasks obediently and eating well, he cannot speak, and appears to have completely lost his memory. Nothing whatever is known of him, and we have been asked by the Guardians to publish his photograph in the hope that it may be seen by his friends.

FIGHT BETWEEN CAT AND FOX.

A remarkable encounter between a black cat and a fox is described by a Bristol correspondent. The fox, in the early hours of the morning, tried to carry off chickens from a farm at Stoke Gifford occupied by Mr. Edward Pursey, a tenant of the Duke of Beaufort. It was seen by the cat, which jumped on its back and attacked it so savagely that the fox made its escape as quickly as possible. The cat's unusual bravery is attributed to the fact that it was guarding a family of kittens and was anxious for their safety.

Judge Cluer advised counsel at the Shore-ditch County-court on Tuesday, to go out and buy a penny wooden horse to illustrate his case, as it was difficult of explanation.

A pair of large eagles which are nesting on an inaccessible rock on the Wasserburg mountain, canton of Schwytz, have during the past two weeks "captured" four lambs, four kids, and one fox, which they have taken up to their nest before the eyes of the peasants.
