SOUTH-WEST VIEW OF OLD SHERBORNE HOUSE.

[By kind permission of the Proprietors of "The Connoisseur."]
The forthcoming great Unionist demonstration and fête at Sherborne Park, Northleach, on July 30th, will prove of more than usual interest to Cheltonians, as at one time the ancient family of Dutton was closely connected with the town; indeed, the Dutton estate reached from Sherborne to Cheltenham. It is said of William Dutton, who was born in 1561, that he could ride from his house at Sherborne to the village of Cheltenham without once stepping off his own property.
The head of the Dutton family was Lord of the Manor of Cheltenham up to the time of John, second Lord Sherborne, who sold the part of the estate that carried the manorial rights. We are enabled to publish the above interesting pictures of Sherborne House as it appeared in those days, and of John, second Lord Sherborne, the last of his family to be Lord of the Manor. James, first Lord Sherborne, was M.P. for the County of Gloucester.

Next week we hope to give a photograph of Sherborne House as it is now, and a portrait of the present peer.

We shall be pleased to send our own photographer to take any events of public interest in Gloucester, free of charge, and insert the pictures in the "Gloucestershire Graphic," if you will let us know when and where they are taking place.

WE regret that owing to great pressure upon the space in our Art Supplement, the Splendid Series of Photographs taken at the Mayor's Garden Party on Wednesday have had to be held over until next week, together with those taken at the Cotswold Agricultural Show at Bourton and many others, including a further series of the Upton Pageant

WE are always glad to receive letters of photographs from Gloucestershire people now resident abroad, in order that we may insert same in the "Chronicle and Graphic." Just as news from home is welcome to them, so will be news from them to their relatives in the old country. We therefore invite correspondence, and will make a special feature of same in the "Chronicle and Graphic," and insert any photographs of interest—either of individuals, groups, home life, &c.—in the popular Art Supplement. Letters from Colonists will be especially welcomed if they contain information concerning the conditions of life, and of trade, and also the prospects for the future.

SHERBORNE HOUSE, NORTHLEACH.

As promised last week, we now publish photographs of Sherborne House, Northleach, as it is to-day, and of Edward, Lord Sherborne, the present Peer. It is in the beautiful Park of Sherborne that the Great Unionist Demonstration and Fête on July 30th is to be held, and, given a fine day, no pleasanter way of spending a summer's afternoon can be imagined than to motor or cycle over the good road to the Park, which, we believe, has never been open to the public before. For those who do not care to cycle, arrangements are being made to run char-a-bancs from Cheltenham and other towns at special rates. Full particulars can be obtained from the Hon. "Rally" Agents, a list of whom is published on the posters.
