EVERY keen housewife values the article
which will stand the test of life-long wear.

In making such a contribution to the home-to-be,
a piece of good quality Silver Plate, however small,
is just the very thing.

You should buy from a firm of long standing repute, whose expenses are low enough to enable them to sell a good article at a moderate figure.

Messrs. Waite & Son, Jewellers and Silversmiths, of 349 High Street, Cheltenham, are now showing a beautiful stock of new goods, and invite your inspection, or will willingly send their illustrated booklet.

A WELL-DRESSED MAN

HAS many points to consider with regard to his clothing, but the importance of the small items is often overlooked.

A Suit that is not new can be excused, but a frayed collar condemns, and a good effect is spoilt by ragged Cuffs.

Collars and Cuffs can be purchased at many establishments, but you will not excel those sold by

ADVERTISERS!

This is a One-Inch Advertisement.

If you are thinking of advertising, please do not overlook these facts: That the "Echo" (daily) and "Chronicle" (weekly) stand unrivalled, and that between them they reach all classes of the community, and have well over 100,000 readers each week.

You can have one like it for 2s. 6d. Which means that for that sum you have your notice printed and placed before probably 40,000 people (for we guarantee a weekly sale of 12,000 copies, and each copy is seen by, on the average, four persons).

SAD DOUBLE DROWNING FATALITY AT TEWKESBURY.

A shocking tragedy occurred at Tewkesbury on Tuesday, August 26th. A little girl named Hopping, while paddling on the steps of the quay, fell into deep water. Her little brother Charles, in trying to save her, also fell in, and Mr. Charles Bostock, a Tewkesbury labourer, jumped in after them, although he could not swim. Both Mr. Bostock and the little boy were drowned, but the little girl was got out alive. Bostock left a widow and three children.
