St. Luke's, Gloucester War Memorial. (See Page 2.)

MR. A. DANGERFIELD,
Of Daisy Bank, Bisley-road, Stroud, who died on Feb. 25th, aged 80 years. He farmed for many years on the Lypiatt Park estate, retiring in the early years of the war. He was formerly in the Gloucester Yeomanry, in which uniform he is here shown.

MR. G. O. PHIPPS,
Head Porter of Cheltenham Ladies' College, who died at the Hospital on Feb. 23, aged 48 years. He had been head porter for 16 1/2 years, and was deeply respected. He was corps sergt.-major of the St. John Ambulance Brigade.

MR. WM. HAINES,
Of 37 Naunton-crescent, Cheltenham, who died at the General Hospital on Feb. 26, aged 62 years. He was a well known and popular member of the Exmouth Arms Bowling Club, and in former years lived in Gloucester.

CHELTENHAM BEAT GLOUCESTER AT RUGBY FOOTBALL.

One of the rare victories that Cheltenham has scored over its old rival was secured on Saturday last, when the home team deservedly won, on the Athletic Ground, by 12 points to 8, before a splendid crowd of spectators.

- 1.—A line-out. Fourteen of the forwards taking an apparently forward pass, with Fennell coming across to stop him.
  - 2.—A Gloucester passing run. Brown is taking an apparently forward pass, with Fennell coming across to stop him.
  - 3.—A Cheltenham rush.
  - 4.—Major Roderick coming through with the ball in a Gloucester rush.

CHELTENHAM BEAT GLOUCESTER AT RUGBY FOOTBALL.

- 5.—Large numbers of Gloucester supporters came over, many in 'buses and motor-coaches, and the buttons of the Supporters' Clubs were much in evidence.
  - 6.—Some of the Cheltenham supporters after the match looked very pleased with the world in general.
  - 7.—Captain Unwin, V.C. (x), and Mr. S. Healing (a), two regular supporters of Gloucester supporters after the match did not look very downhearted. In centre can be seen Dix and Millington, the two county halves, who were unable to play.
  - 8.—A section of the crowd.
  - 9.—Gloucester supporters.
  - 10.—Taking their tickets.
  - 11.—Bloodworth, after tackling a Gloucester centre, is coming for Brown, who has missed the pass.
  - 12.—A Gloucester passing bout.
  - 13.—A Gloucester passing bout.
  - 14.—A 'bus-load of Gloucesterians.

TEWKESBURY GIRLS' (CHURCH OF ENGLAND SCHOOL) CONCERT.

The girls of the Tewkesbury Church of England Schools gave two clever concerts at the Watson Memorial Hall, Tewkesbury, on Thursday and Friday, Feb. 23 and 24th. We give a series of snaps of the performers in their various costumes.

- 1.—Fairy group, with Queen Mab, in operetta entitled "The Enchanted Glen."
- 2.—Elsie Scrivens as a Mermaid, with "The Sea Nymphs," in a song of that name.
- 3.—Harriet Deaner, Phyllis Raggatt, and Frances Sallis in a play "Bibi."
- 4.—Edna Goode as "Mr. Moon" in action song.
- 5.—Dame Grumpus and a Milkmaid in "The Enchanted Glen."
- 6.—A group of girls in a Japanese fan dance.

CHELTENHAM NATIONAL HUNT STEEPLECHASE MEETING.

- This important Meeting was again as great a success as ever, there being a record number of entries, and the racing was first-class. The weather was very stormy on the morning of Wednesday, and this somewhat affected the attendance.
- 1.—Parade of the horses in front of the stands. There were 35 starters.
  - 2.—The big field taking the first fence. Only one came down here.
  - 3.—The second fence in National Hunt Race.
  - 4.—Coming over the last fence in National Hunt Race. Major C. Dewhurst's Conjuror II. (winner) leading, ridden by Mr. C. P. Dewhurst, followed by Red Star IV. (2nd), and Badminton II. (3rd).
  - 5.—Major Purvis, who won this race in 1915 and was second in 1913, chatting to Dr. Foster.
- [Photos by Cheltenham Newspaper Co., Ltd., from whom copies can be obtained.]

CHELTENHAM NATIONAL HUNT STEEPLECHASE MEETING.

- Scenes on the Course on Wednesday. Although the morning was wet, the weather in the afternoon was quite pleasant. The going was quite good.
- 6.—Watching the parades in ring before National Hunt Race.
  - 7.—Two of the fine Cups in the Members Enclosure guarded by the employees of Mr. H. M. Simmons, jeweller, of Cheltenham, who supplied the Cups.
  - 8.—Cheltonians in the Ring.
  - 9.—Matoppo (winner) leading in Stayers' Selling Hurdle Race.
  - 10.—Mr. H. A. Brown on Serban beating Capt. A. H. Wheeler on St. David II.
  - 11.—Sir Geo. Bullough, M.F.H., with a friend.
  - 12.—A fence in the Amateur Riders' Handicap Chase. Mr. H. A. Brown (winner) is last.
- [Photos by Cheltenham Newspaper Co., Ltd., from whom copies can be obtained.]

PICTURESQUE GLOUCESTERSHIRE.—BADGEWORTH.

Badgeworth is an out-of-the-world village lying between the main roads of Cheltenham to Painswick and Cheltenham to Gloucester, but well away from both. The church is one of the oldest in the county, and a list of the clergy starts from the year 1240 A.D.

1.—A peep of the Church Tower from the Rose-garden of the Manor House.

2.—The fine old North Wall of St. Margaret's Chapel, of Badgeworth Church, showing the beautiful ball-flower decoration to windows and door.

3.—The old Village Cross. The shaft and head were restored in memory of the Rev. J. Ellis-Viner, for over 40 years vicar of the parish, and his wife.

4.—The Manor House, Badgeworth, a beautiful old Tudor residence, where Mr. Shepherd now resides. There are many finely trimmed yews in the old-fashioned garden.

[Photos by Cheltenham Newspaper Co., Ltd., from whom copies can be obtained. A further series of Badgeworth will appear next week.]

Strange, 2 Mount-street, Chesterton, Cirencester, writes to the proprietor of "Babo" Food as follows:—"I am enclosing a photo of my twin boys, seven months old, weighing 20lbs. 12oz. and 20lbs. 10oz. They have been fed on your "Babo" Biscuits since three months old, and these have suited them better than any other food I have tried. I have recommended them to several of my friends, as I think they are a splendid food for babies." This is proof positive of the value of "Babo" to all mothers. Enquiries for the food are coming from all parts of England. It may be obtained at all grocers in cartons at 1s. 1d. and 2s. 2d. Worth double its cost.
