GLOUCESTER TRADES FAIR WEEK.

JUNE 11-16, 1923.

ENQUIRIES.

All Enquiries and communications relating to the Trades Fair Week will be promptly dealt with and should be addressed to

THE SECRETARY,
INFORMATION BUREAU,
EASTGATE ST.,
GLOUCESTER.

GLOUCESTER offers a better Shopping Service than any huge Departmental Store in Britain, either in Selection, Value, or Service; its varied manufactures are second to none. Gloucester citizens are justly proud of their ancient city and have at heart its improvements and progress.

With this end in view the Trades Fair Week has been arranged and the huge resources, both Manufacturing and Retail, will be grouped and co-ordinated in an earnest endeavour to prove to all the advantages of the City.

Industry, Commerce, Education, and Arts are all aided, and Gloucester Combined bids you "Welcome to the Fair."

THE Traders of Gloucester have willingly put good money into this "Week"—they are certain that they can give value and service equal to any town in Britain, and merely ask the favour of your enquiries, remaining assured that they can give complete satisfaction to your every need.

EXHIBITIONS.

Industrial.

An Industrial Exhibition, to be opened at 12 noon on Monday, June 11th, by the Mayor of the City of Gloucester, supported by the Dean of Gloucester, will be held at the Drill Hall, Brunswick-road, representing merchandise made in the City of Gloucester, including exhibits of the Science and Arts Association, daily from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Admission 3d. CHILDREN'S FANCY DRESS PARADE IN GLOUCESTER.

In connection with the Gloucester Trades Week, a great Fancy Dress Parade was arranged for Wednesday evening. Hundreds of children in beautiful and varied dresses assembled in College Green, and marshalled by schoolmasters and schoolmistresses of the city marched to the Park, the street en route being lined by thousands of the citizens. Snaps of some of the varied competitors. No. 1 shows four of the prize winners.

CHILDREN'S FANCY DRESS PARADE IN GLOUCESTER.

After the children had arrived at the Park they were marshalled in sections, in a huge square, surrounded by spectators, and were judged for the various prizes. Judging was a most difficult task, for there were so many competitors, and so many of the costumes were so excellent that many who would have been in the prize class on ordinary occasions had to be passed over. Altogether, the competition and parade was a huge success. Further snaps of the competitors. There were many "Charlie Chaplins" and "Jacky Coogans."

HOSPITALS' CARNIVAL IN CHELTENHAM.

The Hospitals' Carnival held in Cheltenham last week was a huge success, especially the great day—Thursday, when about 60 decorated Stalls lined the Promenade and the big Decorated Procession took place. Well over £3,000 was taken on the day, this not including the amount towards the free gift scheme.

- 1.—Miss Isabella Robinson, first prize for Mounted Fancy Dress.
- 2.—Mr. J. W. F. Watts, of St. Martin's Hospital, first for Self-propelled Chair.
- 3 and 4.—Misses Thody and Elliot, assistants at a Montpellier Garden stall.
- 5.—Mr. Spragg, a picturesque figure at the Building Society Stall.
- 6.—Pedestrian competitors in Procession.
- 7.—Miss Evelyn Courtney and her pupils, who danced in Montpellier Gardens.
- 8.—Three little revellers.
- 9.—2000 B.C.—Car from the Tourist Garage, first prize for Most Original Turn-out.
- 10.—Mr. Hawkins' Texas Express, second prize for Decorated Lorry.

HOSPITALS' CARNIVAL IN CHELTENHAM.

The big Procession on Thursday evening was over a mile and a half long, and took half an hour to pass a given spot. It was probably the best that had ever been held in Cheltenham, and was witnessed by many thousands.

- 11.—Messrs. A. Williams and Co.'s decorated motor-cycle and sidecar, first prize.
- 12.—Some of the strenuous workers for the Society's Stall in Promenade.
- 13.—MacFisheries Ltd., first prize for decorated commercial motor vehicle. This fine car also won the Silver Challenge Bowl given by Messrs. H. G. Norton and Co. for the best exhibit in procession.
- 14.—Some of the strenuous workers for the Free Gift Scheme busy selling tickets. It is hoped to clear from £3,000 to £4,000 by this alone. Messrs. McLaughlin, Pates, Slade, Wilks, Philips, and Smith.
- 15.—Darby and Joan, third prize for children J. Gutteridge and W. Williams.
- 16.—Miss Dorothy Bissett, first prize decorated juvenile cycle, who also won a special prize.
- 17.—“Miss Cavendish” with her “Granny's pockets” with a member of Cavendish Concert Party.

HOSPITALS' CARNIVAL IN CHELTENHAM.

There was no lack of helpers towards the success of the Carnival, and the ladies were especially enthusiastic in various ways towards promoting the interests of the Hospitals.

- 18.—Mrs. Ward and her party of helpers, who had a busy time at the Refreshment Stall at Montpellier Gardens.
- 19.—A little helper in the Promenade.
- 20.—Ladies who acted as waitresses at the Rotary Refreshment Café in the Promenade.
- 21.—Mrs. D. Barnett and Miss James, with a truck in the Promenade.
- 22.—Cavendish House Stall, which was raffled for and brought in £80. A number of the workers are in front.
- 23.—Even the taxi-drivers caught the carnival spirit, decorated their cars and wore carnival head-gear.

HOSPITALS' CARNIVAL IN CHELTENHAM.

Luckily the day kept fine on Thursday, and the inhabitants of Cheltenham entered fully into the Carnival spirit: the streets being crowded and a scene of jollity well into the small hours of Friday morning.

- 24.—First prize for Decorated Motor-cycle and Side-car, driven by a lady—Miss Ball and Mr. Burton.
- 25.—Some of the pedestrian competitors: Mr. Claridge (organ grinder), first for gentlemen; Miss K. Mitchell ("Eliza comes to stay"), on right, first for ladies.
- 26.—Miss H. Hiller, first prize for Decorated Ladies Bicycle.
- 27.—The proper carnival spirit. It is hoped next time that more of the people will dress in carnival style.
- 28.—A finely-decorated lorry, which was not in the prize list.
- 29.—A capital conception, which deserved a prize.
- 30.—A youthful competitor.
- 31.—A capital conception, which deserved a prize.
- 32.—Four competitors from St. Martin's Hospital, whose patients turned out splendidly, many winning prizes.
