THE AMBULANCE SERVICE IN CHELTENHAM is conducted from Ambulance Headquarters by a Joint Executive Committee of the St. John Ambulance Association and the British Red Cross Society. The ambulances are staffed by the men and nurses of the two bodies who give their trained services whenever called upon. Two drivers are the only paid employees—all other personal service being voluntary. More than 4,500 patients (including over 700 street accidents) have been conveyed in the Ambulance in the past 8½ years, representing 1 in every 100 of the population per annum, and the demand on the service steadily increases.

Funds are urgently needed, and the Committee earnestly appeal for increased support from the public to enable them to maintain this essential service in full efficiency. Subscriptions and Donations may be sent to the Honorary Treasurer, Councillor G. Owen Dunn, O.B.E., Montagu Villa, Pittville, who will gladly supply any further information.

HELP THE AMBULANCE SERVICE.

FUNERAL OF MR. H. O. ROBERTS, AT GLOUCESTER.

A large body of mourners, representing the social and other organisations of the city, packed the church of St. Barnabas, Tuffley, on Wednesday afternoon last, to pay their tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Harry O. Roberts, of The Knoll, Tuffley, who died on Sunday, July 14. Mr. Roberts and other members of his family has been intimately connected with the life of the city of Gloucester for many years, his brother (Ald. J. O. Roberts) being the present Mayor.

- 1.—Family mourners entering church. Ald. J. O. Roberts is immediately behind the coffin.
- 2.—Mr. Sid Starr (in front) and Mr. Geo. Romans (at back) among other old friends of deceased.
- 3.—Mr. Reg. Davis and Rev. Arthur Barker (representing Western Temperance League).
- 4.—Members of City Corporation.
