GLOUCESTER HOSPITAL CARNIVAL.

Gloucester citizens are making a magnificent effort this week in attempting to raise £20,000 for the enlargement and assistance of the Gloucester Royal Infirmary. The effort takes the form of a gigantic Carnival held in the Park, one of the principal attractions being a historical Pageant.

- 1.—A charming Puritan in the Siege of Gloucester: Miss Betty Bond.
- 2.—Henry VIII., with Queen Anne Boleyn (on right of him), and Court ladies.
- 3.—A group of primitives in the "Coming of Man" episode.
- 4.—Robert Raikes (Mr. Norman Hayes) and his wife as a Nun.
- 5.—Puritan lasses in Siege of Gloucester episode.
- 6.—King Edward II., the Abbot of Gloucester, and his assistant.
- 7.—King George III., Queen Charlotte, the Prince of Wales, with Princes and Princesses.

["Cheltenham Chronicle" Photos. Copies 1s. and 1s 9d. each, postage 2d. extra. A Further Series of Pictures and Full Report of the Carnival is Published in our sister paper, the "Gloucester Journal."]

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION AT FULLWOOD PARK.

There was a large gathering of Roman Catholics and other interested spectators to witness the annual Corpus Christi procession which took place in gorgeous weather, last Sunday afternoon, in the beautiful grounds of the Ursuline Convent.

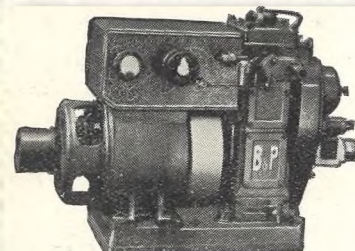

- 1.—The striking scene at the first Altar.
- 2.—The Blessed Sacrament was borne by Very Rev. Canon Chard (Gloucester), assisted by Rev. Fr. W. Palmer (Winchcombe), and Rev. C. Smith (Ramsgate).
- 3, 4, 6, and 7.—Sections of the procession.
- 5.—The Child Christ, impersonated by a pretty little boy carrying his cross.

INTERESTING WEDDING AT ST. MARK'S, CHELTENHAM.

A large number of guests attended the wedding at St. Mark's Church, Cheltenham, on June 21st, of Miss Mary Gertrude Wilson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Amos Wilson, of Rowanfield House, Cheltenham, to Mr. Richard Burton-Legge. The bridegroom, who is the only son of the late Dr. Richard John Legge, M.D., F.R.C.S., L.M., who held an important post at Derby before retiring to Cheltenham, and of Mrs. Legge, of Cheltenham, is a member of Lloyds Bank staff at the Lynton branch. The wedding reception was held at the Lixeybrook Hotel. The bridal group and some of the guests, ["Cheltenham Chronicle" Photo. GLOUCESTER HOSPITAL CARNIVAL CHILDREN'S FANCY DRESS PARADE.

Perhaps one of the prettiest features of Gloucester's successful carnival was the children's fancy dress parade on Friday evening, July 4th. Some hundreds of children paraded in fancy dress in the park, all from the public elementary schools of the City, and their display was a great credit to their parents and teachers.

- 1.—Three little girls, Welsh, Norwegian, and Irish.
- 2.—Boys marching off in drill display.
- 3.—A dear little girl of six as a wedding cake. A worthy prize-winner.
- 4.—Girls marching in drill display.
- 5.—The fairies' section, a difficult job for the judges.
- 6.—Studies from foreign lands.
- 7.—A mixed bag.
- 8.—Another wedding cake, also a prize-winner.
- 9.—Balloon girls.
