TABLEAUX VIVANTS AT BREDON PARISH HALL

A clever and artistic display of living pictures by local ladies and gentlemen was given at Bredon Hall on Thursday. Fourteen tableaux were staged, many representing well-known pictures. The scenes were stage-managed and produced by Mrs. Burnett.

1.—"A hunting we will go."

2.—Scene from "Merchant of Venice."

3.—Hallelujah Chorus.

4.—Cesare Borgia.

5.—The blind Milton dictating to his daughters.

6.—The Order of Release, by Millais.

"Cheltenham Chronicle" Photographs. Copies 1s. and 1s. 9d. each.

OPENING NEW CENTRAL SCHOOL AT BREDON

A new Central Senior School was opened at Bredon on Tuesday by the Bishop of Worcester (Dr. A. W. Perowne). It will be used for the education of the senior children of Overbury, Kemerton, Beckford, Eckington, and Bredon. It is situated immediately behind the old "Hancock's" Boys' School.

1.—The choir, who headed the procession from church to school.
 2.—Visitors arriving at the church.
 3.—The Bishop of Worcester.

4.—Exterior of new school.
 5 and 8.—Some of the boys and girls who will attend the school.
 6.—Head of procession to school.

7.—Rev. J. A. B. Mercier (Kemerton), and Rev. J. H. P. O'Connor (Curate of Overbury).

"Cheltenham Chronicle" Photographs. Copies 1s. and 1s. 9d. each.

OLD RUGBY RIVALS MEET AGAIN

Cheltenham played Gloucester on the Athletic Ground on Saturday, the first of the season's matches between these old local rivals. A pointless draw was the result of a pleasant but strenuous match, Gloucester being the better forward, while Cheltenham had the better backs.

- 1.—Gloucester attacking in a passing run.
- 2.—D. A. C. Page (left), Cheltenham's fly-half, and E. H. Lloyd, Cheltenham centre.
- 3.—Wally Fellows (left), the old Cheltenham player, watches the game with Jack Curtis, the referee.
- 4 and 5.—Sections of spectators on the popular side.
- 6.—Regular Cheltenham followers intent on the game.
- 7.—Spectators.
- 8.—A line-out in Cheltenham territory.

"Cheltenham Chronicle" Photographs. Copies 1s. and 1s. 9d. each.

CHILDREN'S FANCY DRESS DANCE TEA AT CHELTENHAM TOWN HALL

The second of the three Municipal Fancy Dress Dance Teas for Children on Saturday was a great success, over 500 guests dancing, and 200 spectators occupied the balconies.

- 1.—A few of Miss Evelyn Courtney's pupils who gave a pretty dancing display.
- 2.—Miss J. Kettle's party as "The Black Hand Gang."
- 3.—Lucy Jordan in hunting costume and Paddy Brown.
- 4.—Miss Greta Pugh as a Victorian.
- 5.—Richard Boyle as a Mexican, second prize for boys.
- 6.—Mrs. Douglas Grundy's party; Michael Grundy (on left) won third prize for boys.
- 7.—Mrs. Thorp's party.
- 8.—Veronica Dartnall as Joan of Arc, second prize for girls; John Carpenter, as Strube's little man, first prize for boys; and Diana Dartnall, as Madame Pompadour, won second prize for girl. In the first dance tea.

"Cheltenham Chronicle" Photographs. Copies 1s. and 1s. 9d. each.

OPENING SOUP KITCHEN IN CHELTENHAM

The soup kitchen in New-street was officially opened by the Mayor of Cheltenham (Ald. P. P. Taylor) for the Salvation Army (who are running it), on Wednesday morning.

1.—A group of workers and well-wishers at the opening, with the Mayor in centre. 2.—Three clients. 3.—Two of the kiddies taking their portions home. 4.—The Mayor declaring the kitchen open.

CELEBRITIES AT A CHELTENHAM BALL

The annual ball given by Messrs. Reed and Patterson (Cheltenham), Ltd., to their business friends was held on Tuesday last. Among the guests of the evening were Mr. Alistair MacDonald, M.P., son of the Prime Minister (A), Mr. Eric Hakim (B), Mr. Claude Allister, a celebrated Hollywood star (C), Ald. C. H. Margrett, C.B.E. (D), and Mr. Hacking, representing the Daimler Co., Ltd. (E). Mr. G. H. Patterson (F), Mr. D. W. Reed (G), and Mr. Percy Lloyd (secretary) (H), are also included in this group.

CARNIVAL DINNER AT RODNEY HOTEL

The Christmas programme lasted for a week at Rodney Hotel, and included Bridge, billiards and ping-pong tournaments, dramatic entertainments, and dancing. Above is the party at the carnival dinner. "Cheltenham Chronicle" Photograph.

A REAL LUXURY CAR

This luxurious 1932 Chrysler 25 h.p. saloon, delivered by the distributors for Gloucestershire, The Imperial Motor Mart, Royal Crescent, Cheltenham, has been supplied to Mr. Ivor Anthony, the well-known trainer. More British materials are being used in Chrysler cars this year than ever before.

THE PICTURESQUE COTSWOLDS — BURFORD

On the lead of the font in Burford Church, rudely cut with a dagger, are the words "Anthony Sedley, Prisner, 1649." This was inscribed by one of the 400 mutineer soldiers who were captured in Burford in that year by General Fairfax and Cromwell, as they were marching from Salisbury to Worcester during the so-called "Leveller" movement. These mutineers were imprisoned in the church, and four ringleaders were taken out and shot whilst their companions looked on from the roof of the Sylvester Chapel.

9.—A wonderful old stone and half-timbered house in Sheep-street, known as The Calendars. It has a beautiful old courtyard.

CHELTENHAM BABY WITH FOUR GREAT-GRANDMOTHERS

A baby girl, born last week to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Carpenter, of Hope Dene, St. George's-road, Cheltenham, has four great-grandmothers living, all in Cheltenham.

They are (from left): Mrs. Emma Carpenter, (92), Mrs. Elizabeth Ruck, Mrs. Ann Butt (83), and Mrs. Clara Minchin (73). All are widows, and in good health, and each stood for her photograph in the open air. In the centre are the mother and baby, the latter a week old when photographed.

The baby's father is a grandson of Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Minchin, the baby's mother is a granddaughter of Mrs. Butt and Mrs. Ruck, and is a daughter of Mr. "Dickv" Butt, a well-known local cricketer.

CHELTENHAM GENERAL HOSPITAL AND MOTOR ACCIDENTS

The problem of finding beds for the victims of road casualties, and the cost of their subsequent treatment to recovery, is giving most of our hospitals cause for anxious thought. This picture of No. 8 (Accident) Ward at Cheltenham General Hospital was taken by our photographer last week. All the beds seen are occupied by some of the eighteen victims of serious road accidents who have been brought to the hospital during the past few weeks. All are happily on the mend. In addition to the number of people who have been detained, about sixty others have had their injuries treated, but allowed to go home afterwards and attend as out-patients until recovered.
