Some of the trade entries which caught the public eye

CHELTENHAM'S WHITSUN CARNIVAL

A great feature of Cheltenham's Whit-Monday Carnival was the procession of decorated vehicles.

1.—Flower and Sons, Ltd., of Stratford-on-Avon Brewery, took the opportunity to draw attention to the merits of "Palex," their new light ale. A beautiful ensemble gained the Rotary Cup for best decorated commercial vehicle; and the drink is just as outstanding in merit.

3.—In the class for horse-drawn vehicles Mr. W. D. Farrar's entries were awarded first and second prizes. As Mr Farrar claims that the quality of coals he supplies is always "first," the awards were naturally appropriate.

5.—By means of a very ancient vehicle Regent Motors very aptly emphasised their servicing of cars. Apparently if you buy a car from this firm and let them do the service afterwards it never wears out.

2.—Victory Motors entry—a Ford Eight perched on the bed of a Ford Lorry, was another striking design, and the passengers looked as though they were thoroughly enjoying their ride. But then, all Fords are the acme of comfort and dependability

4.—Messrs. W. Sawyer and Co. make a speciality of the well-known Ryder-Rex coals, and their design of a truck-load mounted on a side-car gained first prize in its class. Mr. F. R. Elliott was responsible for the design and work.

6.—Cheltenham Gas Company featured smokeless fuel on their two lorry entries, and as scientists are all for purifying the air in populous districts, the great increase in the use of coke, etc., for heating purposes is readily understood. Absolutely regular delivery is guaranteed to all parts of the town.

NORTH COTSWOLD HUNT PUPPY SHOW AT BROADWAY

A splendid attendance of puppy walkers and members of the Hunt was seen at the annual show at the Kennels last Friday. 1.—The judges at work. The hounds were all attention to the Kennel Huntsman. 2.—Prominent members of Hunt; Mr. C. T. Scott, ex Master, marked with X. 3.—The judges—Hon. C. G. Cubitt, M.F.H. 4.—Watching the judging—Mrs. Milvain, who won 2nd for dogs, standing at back. 5.—Hon. Mrs. Cubitt, and Mrs. W. W. B. Scott on extreme right. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Atkins (Winchcombe), and Mr. and Mrs. Ingham Staight Dumbleton and their son in front.

SWIMMING AND WATER-POLO GALA AT CIRENCESTER

A splendid gala was held on Saturday afternoon in Cirencester new open air baths, when two of the finest teams in England, Cheltenham and Plaistow, played in a water polo match, and some fine swimming and diving was seen.
 1.—The Polo Match in progress—Cheltenham won. 2.—Girl members of Cirencester Club.
 3.—Mr. G. Hinch was tied in a sack and sunk to the bottom of the bath. He re-appeared in 1½ minutes. 4.—Three star divers with Mr. Eric Cole (right), captain of Cirencester Club.
 5.—Spectators at the match.

CHORAL WEDDING IN CHELTENHAM

The marriage took place at All Saints' Church, Cheltenham, on Saturday last, of Mr. Leonard Coombs, son of Mrs. Coombs, of Cheltenham, to Miss Dorothy Violet Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fowler. The service was taken by Rev. P. M. C. Johnstone and was fully choral. The bride's father has been a member of the choir for many years.

BEAUTIFUL PAGEANT AT SOUTHAM

The fine old Tudor mansion of Southam de la Bere formed a charming background for a delightful little pageant of "Merrie England," dated in the time of "Good Queen Bess." It was performed on Saturday afternoon and evening by members of Prestbury Women's Institute and residents in the village, was wonderfully dressed for a village production and made a most picturesque spectacle.

1.—The pageant in progress, with Southam de la Bere in background.
 2.—Old John (Mr. Frank Pates) on the well.
 3.—The May Queen (Miss F. Denley) and her attendants.
 4.—Queen Elizabeth (Miss Joyce Green) and her attendants on the terrace.
 5.—Old John, the Town Crier (Mr. A. Brown), and villagers outside the Green Dragon.
 6.—A group of the delightful children who danced and thoroughly enjoyed their own performance.

 Gentlemen
 The enclosed bill relates to purchases made on my behalf from you in 1891, 42 years ago, and it may interest you to know that of the items mentioned the pair of Blankets which have been alternately in continuous use, bear no trace of wear and still appear to be as good as new, as also is the Suit marked 10/11.
 This shows the advantage of dealing with a reliable firm.
 You are at liberty to make what use you like of this letter.
 Yours sincerely,
 Helen Mills (nee Doves)

An Interesting Link with the Past

We reproduce above a letter recently received by Messrs. Dicks and Sons, Ltd., of Cheltenham, together with invoice dated 1891 in the actual handwriting of the late Mr. James Dicks, founder of the firm. Messrs. Dicks and Sons are justly gratified at this remarkable tribute to the wearing qualities of the goods they sell, since their present big business and reputation has been built up entirely on the policy of giving the best possible value for money. This principle has always been jealously guarded, and the firm have just as much confidence in the goods they sell to-day as in those sold in 1891. Moreover, it is of interest to note that the prices of the articles mentioned on the bill are very much the same as those ruling for similar goods to-day.
