THE SECOND MATCH OF THE CHELTENHAM CRICKET FESTIVAL

A splendid crowd was present on Wednesday morning when Lyon beat Melville in the loss, and Gloucestershire took first innings on a good wicket against Sussex. The weather was delightful.

- 1.—The scene on the ground—Tate is bowling to Barnett.
- 2.—Mr. W. Coyney and Charlie Parker (Gloucestershire).
- 3.—B. H. Lyon and A. Melville (Sussex) tossing.
- 4.—Cox and J. Parks (Sussex).
- 5.—Mr. Champney brings his seat and umbrella with him.
- 6.—The Mayor of Bedford (in centre) and his four brothers, all old Cheltonians, were at the match on Wednesday. They are, from left, Messrs. H. H., A. H., H. R., L. W., and E. J. Neate.
- 7.—A. Melville and Tate (Sussex) taking the field.
- 8.—Oates, one of the umpires, had to fetch new bails on Wednesday; the others did not fit.

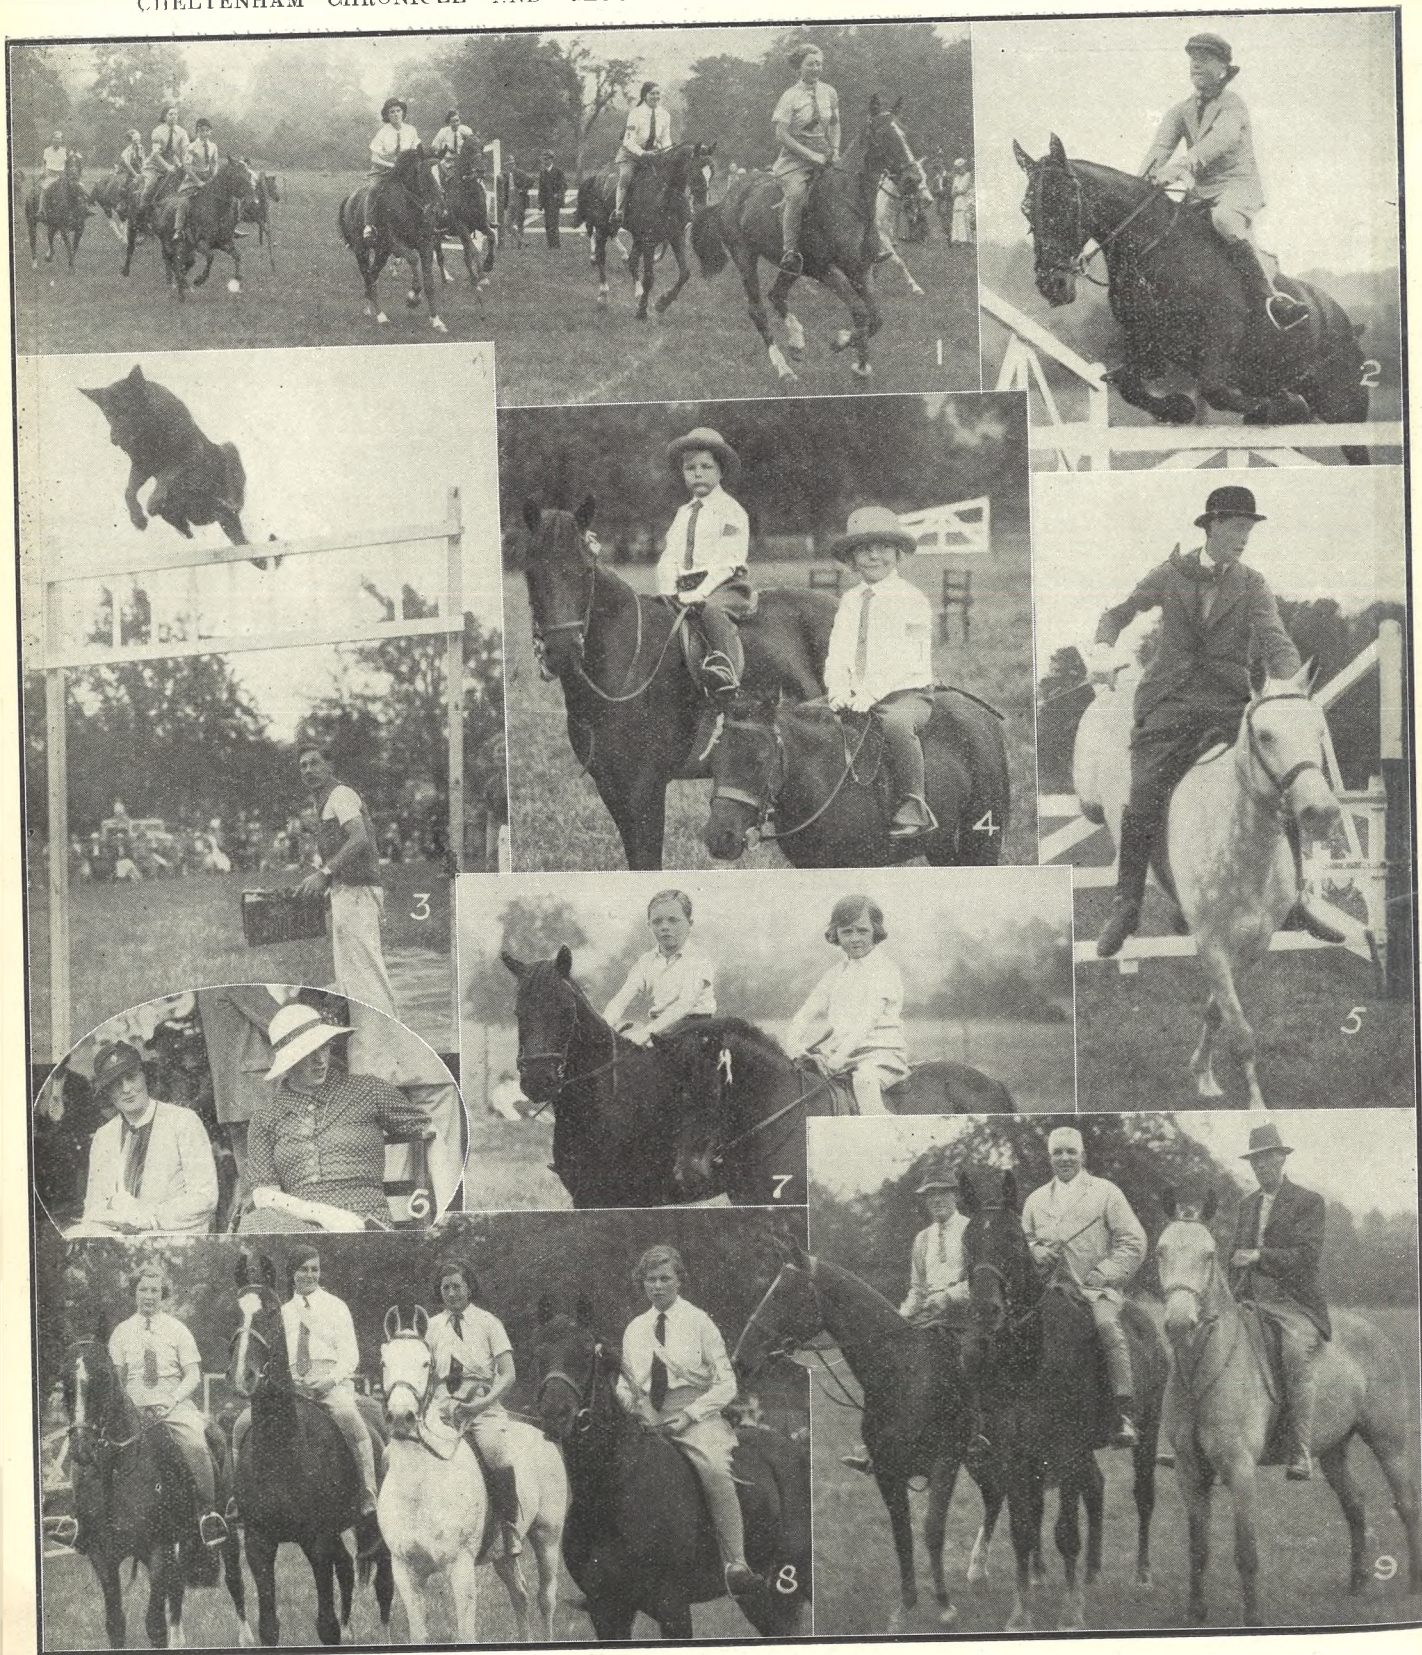

—and when it comes to the "FINAL TEST"

Motorists find that REED AND PATTERSON can "take the field" against all "opposition." Never need you be "stumped" for a car when "England's selection" awaits your "inspection." Nor will you be "caught" when buying a re-conditioned model. Each one is genuine!
