CHEL TENHAM COLLEGE BEAT WELLINGTON COLLEGE

One of the finest Rugby football matches played at the College for some years, was enjoyed by a large crowd on Saturday. Wellington led, just after half-time, by 11 points to 3, but Cheltenham thrilled the crowd by making attack after attack, their score creeping up by successive tries until they won by 15 points to 11.

1.—Bateman-Champain (on left) trying to burst through in the corner for a try.
 2.—Bateman-Champain took five goal-kicks, but failed to convert any. The referee, Mr. T. H. Vile, is seen looking on.
 3.—A section of the big crowd.
 4.—The juniors appeared for the first time in light blue caps.
 5.—A line-out.

MRS. GEORGE MAISEY, of Endcroft, Cirencester-road, Charlton Kings, who died on October 24, aged 26 years. She had been married only two months, and is here seen in her wedding dress. She was very well-known and popular when living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Pearce, at the Conservative Club.

MOST SETS ARE SIMILAR EXCEPT WHEN THEY'RE PYE

Model SE/AC has all the refinements you expect in a modern radio receiver—superhet circuit, automatic volume control, tone control, illuminated full-vision dial, visual tuning 'compass,' moving coil speaker. But it has something more—it has the name Pye that stands for years of experience, for proven reliability and for quality in radio.

In beautifully-figured walnut cabinet that blends equally well with modern or home furnishings.

PRICE 15 GNS. or 31/6 down.

See this wonderful A.C. Mains Portable in your own home. See how the exquisite design and artistry of the cabinet matches your scheme of decoration. Test it for yourself. See what Pye have done with 'wireless wireless'—how they have incorporated every modern refinement into the SP/AC—self-contained aerial and earth, four-valve superhet circuit, automatic volume control, tuning compass, volume indicator—and offered it to you for the amazing price of 16 guineas. Let us arrange to demonstrate in your home.

Unrivalled in Works for Two Pianos.

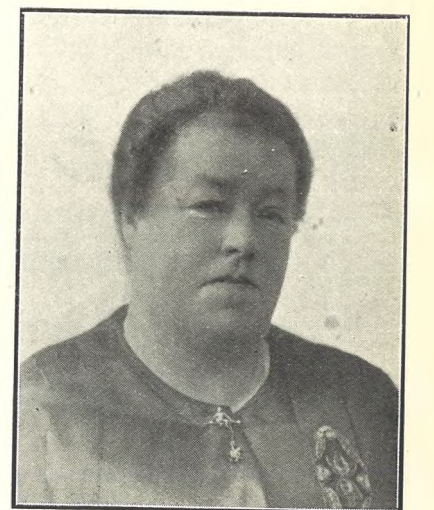

who are appearing at the second of the present series of Max Mossel Concerts at the Town Hall, Cheltenham, Thursday, November 15th, next.

The ensemble work of these musicians is extraordinary in more ways than one. It is not only amazing for its sheer mechanical perfection, but for something more treasurable and both rarer and subtler; the psychic accord between the players which partakes of the telepathic. No amount of practice together could account for this spiritual unity.

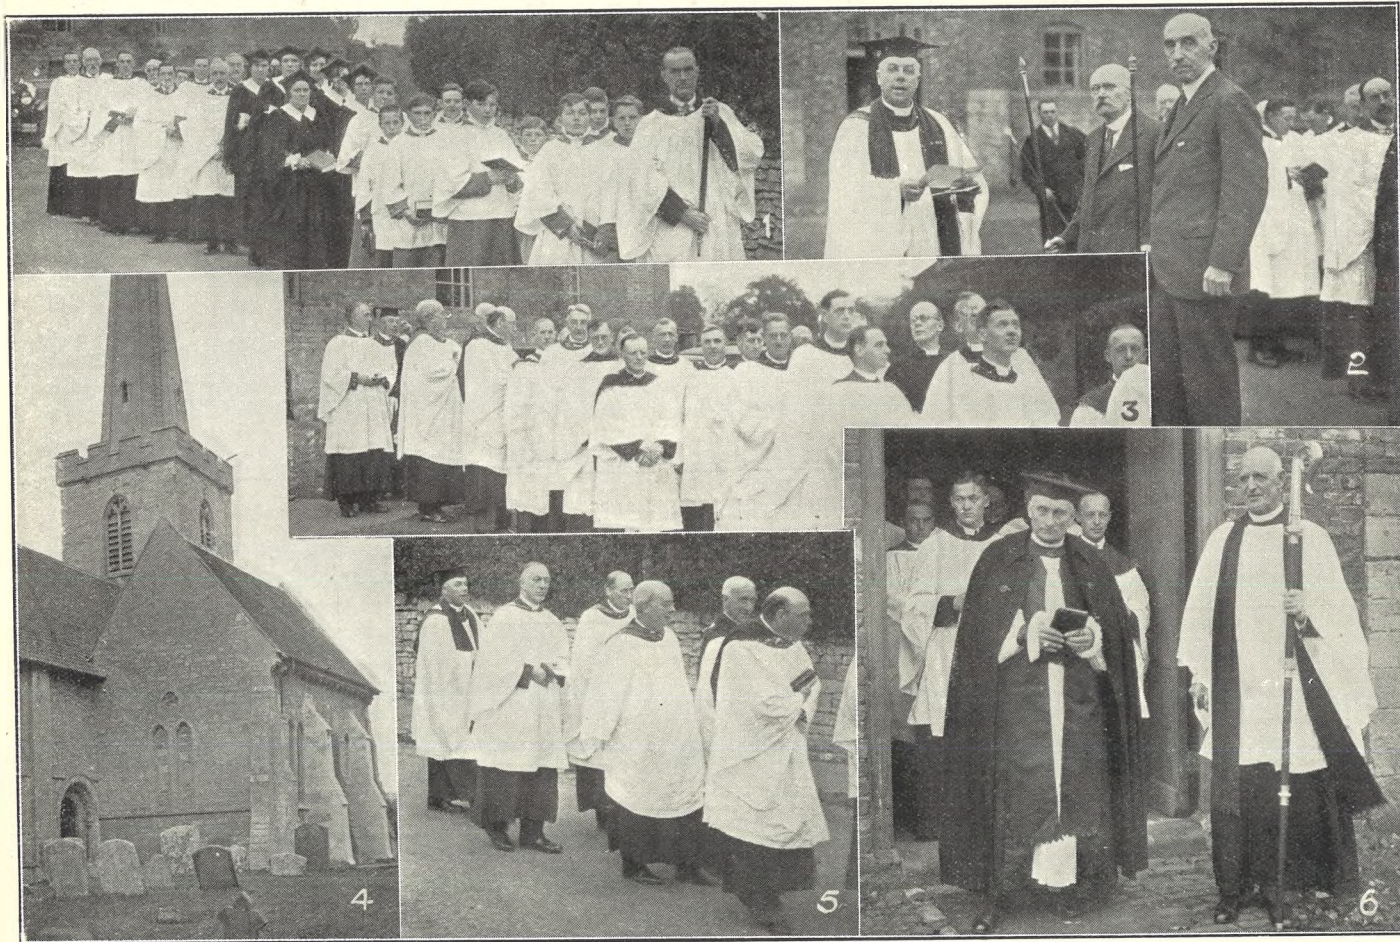

Oda Slobodskaya, the renowned Russian soprano, has also been engaged for this concert.

CHELTENHAM'S ANNUAL MATCH WITH THE COLLEGE

The best "gate" of the season welcomed the Collegians on the Athletic Ground, Cheltenham, on Saturday, when the annual Rugby football match between the Town and College took place. Both teams have capital records this season, and a very close game resulted in a win for the Town by 9 points to 5.

- 1.—Leslie Goddard leading a concerted rush for the Town.
- 2.—Bateman-Champain, the College heavy-weight forward, watched the game from the touch-line. He has a poisoned wrist.
- 3.—Spectators, mostly Collegians, in front of the grandstand. The stand was packed.
- 4.—The Committee and Chairman of the Supporters' Club. They presented a new set of blue and white jerseys to the Town, who wore them in this match.
- 5.—Town supporters on the rails.
- 6.—Goldthorpe, the Town trainer, with some enthusiastic youngsters, uses the stretcher as a seat.
- 7 and 8.—Some of the Collegians present.
- 9.—A line-out. The Town made the most of these.
