GERMAN BOMBS IN THE SOUTH-WEST ENGLAND

1. A Tudor cottage, showing where the bomb exploded just outside the garden. Mr. C. F. Ridsdale, the owner, is standing near. Suction following the explosion flung him from the back door of the house into the passage.
2. Another view of the Tudor cottage, whose windows, both back and front, were blown in. The roof was damaged.
3. A small bomb which burst near a South-western country farmstead merely lifted up the turf.
4. A big bomb exploded here with a terrific concussion in the middle of a pasture field, and killed six sheep.
5. The front of Mr. J. Hall's beautiful Georgian home, where every window was blown in and other damage done. No one was injured.
6. A delayed-action bomb exploded here on the side of a country lane, blowing up the hedge and bank of a garden, but doing no other damage. A house 20 yards away was untouched.

TRAGEDY AT DUMBLETON

Boy and girl cousins, aged 17 and 20, the rider and pillion passenger on a motor-cycle, were killed in a road accident at Dumbleton shortly after midnight on Friday. The motor-cycle was involved in a collision with an Army motor-lorry, and both vehicles caught fire. The young people were thrown under the lorry and lost their lives in the blaze. They were returning from a dance at Beckford.

Above are the burnt-out motor-cycle and motor-lorry, and on the left are portraits of Irene Hogg and Graham Grinnell, both of Little Cheltenham, Dumbleton, who were killed. Graham Grinnell, who was employed at the Sunningend Works, Cheltenham, was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Grinnell, and Miss Hogg had also made her home with them. She was employed at Burton's Stores, Winchcombe.

NEW ZEALAND FORESTRY EXPERTS IN GLOUCESTERSHIRE

A contingent of tree-fellers, sawyers, and other forestry experts are now at work in the big woods of an estate in the South-West. They are part of the New Zealand Expeditionary Force.

- 1 — Lieut. G. A. Gammon, in charge of sawing station in the woods. Sergt. I. C. Tuck, and Corpl. A. R. Geard, all experts.
- 2 — Starting on another trunk. They use their axes first, and finish with a cross-cut saw.
- 3. These men felled this tree in ten minutes, exactly where they wanted it, without ropes. It is very hard work, as they have to kneel to saw the trunk low.
- 4 — Making a pile of the rough outside planks.
- 5. — A corner of the sawing sheds in the woods.
- 6 — The lunch interval: taking it easy. They earn their rest, as the work is very strenuous.

HEARING IN WAR-TIME

EVERY person who experiences difficulty in hearing is at a great disadvantage during an emergency, and is often compelled to rely upon assistance from a friend, or even a complete stranger.

Such embarrassing situations need not arise if a correctly fitted Hearing Aid is obtained.

Our Test Rooms are equipped with modern Testing Apparatus by which the correct Aid can be prescribed. There is no charge for testing and all Aids are available for a week's trial at home before purchase.

FIRE PUT OUT IN A SECOND

A remarkable demonstration of fire fighting was staged recently at the Plough Yard Car Park, when an Antifyre Pistole extinguished instantaneously a blazing hut which had previously been saturated with petrol. The method used is absolutely non-injurious to human beings, materials, and/or machinery, and the apparatus so light in weight that any child can easily handle it. It will deal effectively with almost every type of emergency fire outbreak, including electric and gas. The Antifyre Pistole is British made throughout, being manufactured at Perivale, just outside London, and the local representative is Mr. H. Ash, of 198a, Hatherley Road, Cheltenham, who will be pleased to give further particulars.

RADIUM TREATMENT FOR RHEUMATISM

NOW IN CHELTENHAM FOR DISTRIBUTION TO GLOUCESTERSHIRE SUFFERERS.

The afflicted with Arthritis, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, must not lose heart the world-famous Q-Ray Radium treatment is now in Cheltenham for direct public distribution.

The merits of this amazing treatment has been subject to a debate in the House of Commons approved by the Ministry of Health.

Only one visit to 57, The Promenade, Cheltenham, is necessary. The treatment is then self-applied in your own home simply, without skill or assistance, without drugs, without medicine, and no lubrication.

A message of new hope to all who gave up in despair to finish life in bath chairs, on crutches, or those hobbling painfully on sticks. Mr. Turner will advise free and without obligation to all callers daily next week between the hours of 9.30 to 1 and 2.30 to 6 p.m. 9.30 to 1 on Saturday.
