IDEAL N.A.A.F.I. GIRL

The above photograph shows 22 of the N.A.A.F.I. employees (representing over 7,000 colleagues), who were interviewed for the purpose of selecting three winners to represent the Southern Command in the Ideal N.A.A.F.I. Girl Contest. The girls were elected by their female colleagues at restaurants, canteens, grocery shops, mobile vans, warehouses, and bakeries. The qualifications considered were adaptability, pleasant personality, cheerfulness, loyalty, and smartness in appearance. They subsequently passed through a number of other stages in the contest, and the three winning girls will now represent the Southern Command in the final stage of the contest, which takes place very shortly. They will then have to compete in the final with girls chosen from other Commands. Mrs. Joan Hutton (marked with a cross) was selected from N.A.A.F.I. Institutes in the Severn Group (County of Gloucestershire), and now passes into the final stage.

2nd-LIEUT. F. E. G. LAW, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Law, of 22, Crabtree-place, Cheltenham, who has been granted a commission in the King's Own Regiment. He joined the Army 12 years ago, at the age of 14, as a bond boy.
