A Car that gives Comfort and Performance

ONE OF THE NEW WOLSELEY SUPER SIXES

These roomy and luxurious cars are among Wolseley's most outstanding contributions towards better motoring. The 61 inch rear track allows even more seating space for passengers, while additional power is developed by the 6-cylinder engine unit. A noteworthy improvement is the new "Phased Suspension" system of springing which, by eliminating tiresome bumping and swaying, greatly increases riding comfort both for the driver and passengers. Another welcome advantage is the ample accommodation for luggage provided by the large boot which is incorporated in the design of these attractive cars.

The Gloucestershire County Distributors for these famous cars are STEELS GARAGES, LTD., HIGH STREET, CHELTENHAM, from whom further particulars may be obtained.

A GOOD START FOR THE NEW YEAR!

Our photographer snaps a fleet of new Ford cars on their way to join the firm of Messrs. W. F. Rees, Ltd., Public Works Contractors, of Cheltenham and London. Intended for the use of directors and officials, the future life of these cars will be one of real hard work, and the Victory Motor Co., Ltd., Main Ford Dealers, Winchcombe-street, Cheltenham, who supplied the fleet, say: "That's the main reason for the choice Ford cars thrive on hard work." The new Ford range is very attractive—the "Eight" from £117 10s., the "Ten" from £150, and the V.8 "22" from £240.

Aren't you pulling my leg?

A few days ago, we told a client that we had a 16 h.p. car with a 20 h.p. performance and the economy of a '10'; he merely smiled and said, 'Aren't you pulling my leg?'

But there was one way of proving it to him—and the same facility is yours: take a ride in the NEW WILLYS, a comfortable FIVE SEATER SALOON which will do up to 40 miles per gallon and easily sustain well over 60 m.p.h. without fatigue to passengers or car.

THE NEW WILLYS at £247 IS MORE THAN A GOOD CAR—IT'S A SENSATION which you can see and try now at REGENT MOTORS, REGENT STREET, CHELTENHAM. Tel. 2041.

A COTSWOLD DUET

By Ralph Dobell. 44 pp. Crown 8vo., 5 x 7½. Stiff paper covers. 2s. 6d. net. By post, 2s. 9d.

"His character sketches of the principals in the 'duet' . . . are as crisp and clear as are the tiny pen and ink sketches . . . which catch so subtly the spirit of the hills. The dialect is as necessary to the book as are the picturesque villages and the grey stone walls to the Cotswold country."—Gloucestershire Echo."

"Some of the vivid memories of the author's youth . . . to portray something of that fortitude, that appreciation of beauty and worth, together with that shrewd materialism which are all so curiously and sometimes so startlingly blended in the character of the Cotswold villager." — "Gloucestershire County Gazette."

WINDRUSH CHOIR WITH THE VICAR AND VICAR'S WARDEN

What is probably a unique instance of family association in a village choir is to be found at Windrush Church. Four of the men members have each two sons also singing in the choir. They are Messrs. Arthur Phipps, Fred Dadge, Bertram Large and Sydney Mills, and are included in the above picture of the vicar, vicar's warden, parish clerk and choir. Behind is a fine example of Norman work in the beautiful south doorway of the church. Back row: Messrs. A. Phipps, G. Garrett, F. Dadge, B. Large, S. Mills, H. Dadge, S. Mills, junr. Second row: A. THIS IS "KIDDIES KORNER"

An invitation to inspect their new "Kiddies Korner" is extended by the Cheltenham Cycle Co., 82 Strand. Rapidly increasing business has made necessary a new window (illustrated above) and remodelled showrooms. These improvements enable them to effectively display their huge stocks of Baby Needs—one of the finest in the county. The choice of Baby Carriages includes such famous makes as Dunkley, Marmet, Allwin, Richards, P.M. and Fethalite, all of which are obtainable on very easy terms. The selection of cots, chairs, rugs and other accessories seems unlimited, and further strengthens the firm's slogan, "The House for Stock and Value."
