BAPTIST CHOIR FESTIVAL IN CHELTENHAM

A choir of over 100 took part at Salem Church, Cheltenham, last week, in the fourth annual choral festival of the Gloucestershire and Hereford Association of Baptist Churches, over which Mr. F. Harper (president of the association) presided. Mr. Ivor Owen, A.R.C.O., L.R.A.M., borough organist of Swansea, conducted. The Cheltenham contingent of the choir came from Salem, Cambray, Leckhampton, and Charlton Kings Churches.

CHELTENHAM ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS' FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP.

Remarkably keen struggles for the leadership have taken place in the Senior and Junior Leagues of the Schools' Championship. Parish Church School won the Northern Junior Division, and Naunton Park the Southern Division. The final was played off last week. All Saints' Seniors won the Senior Championship.

1.—All Saints' School, winners of the Senior League Championship for first time. 3.—Practising School "A" Team, who played the Rest of the Town. They did not enter for the Senior Championship this year, having won it last season.

2.—Naunton Park School, winners of the Junior Schools' Football Shield. 4.—Parish Church School, champions of North Division, who were defeated by Naunton Park Juniors (South) in final championship match.

TEWKESBURY SPRING FLOWER AND DAFFODIL SHOW

A beautiful display of daffodils and spring flowers was seen at the 25th annual show at Tewkesbury Town Hall on Saturday, probably the finest show ever staged there. It was opened by Col. J. H. Collett, C.M.G., of Cheltenham.

- 1. Dr. Acheson, who won the Challenge Bowl and replica in open division.
- 2.—Col. J. H. Collett declaring the show open.
- 3. Scene at opening of show, Mrs. J. Fair, who presented the prizes, on left.
- 4.—Miss Acheson at a stand of fine blooms shown by her father.

SOCIETY WEDDING AT BUCKLAND, NEAR BROADWAY.

Much interest was aroused by the very pretty wedding at Buckland Parish Church, near Broadway, on Saturday, of Mr. Peter Tennant, to Miss Valerie Nettlefold. A large number of prominent people attended the ceremony. There were three bridesmaids and four pages. The bridesmaids wore dresses of apple green, and the pages were in green and white Georgian suits. The church was beautifully decorated by Hopwood's. The bridal group. Inset are Lord and Lady Charnwood, and Mr. Archibald Tennant.
