CHRISTMAS PARTY AT CHELTENHAM CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Father Christmas visited the Children's Hospital, Battledown, last week, and distributed gifts to all the inmates from two large Christmas trees—one in the boys' ward and one in the girls'. Inset (centre) is the Matron, with the Chairman, Councillor E. L. Ward, and at the foot, Mrs. E. L. Ward.

CHRISTMAS TREE AND PARTY FOR CHILDREN AT RISSINGTON AERODROME

All the children of the R.A.F. staff and of the civilian employees at Rissington Aerodrome were entertained to a tea and Christmas tree in the lecture room at the Aerodrome last week. Every child received a present from the tree. Group-Captain ap Ellis (next to the chef), the Officer Commanding, is standing in the centre, and Mrs. ap Ellis is seated next him.

200 LITTLE GUESTS AT INNER WHEEL CHRISTMAS PARTY

More than 200 little guests had a joyful time at the Cheltenham Inner Wheel's Christmas Party at the Queen's Hotel last week. Here are some of those present.

CHELTENHAM SISTERS' DOUBLE WEDDING AT ALL SAINTS' CHURCH

The bridal group at the wedding of the Misses Kathleen and Dorothy Evans to Mr. Thomas J. Bourne, of Stoulton, Worcs., and Mr. Ivor J. Daniel, of Henrietta-street, Cheltenham. The brides are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Evans, of Essex Lodge, Windsor-street, Cheltenham.

WILD LIFE TAMED BY WINTER'S WANT

One of our staff photographers, while seeking snow scenes on Leckhampton Hill last week, placed his camera-bag on the ground. A few seconds later it was being inspected by a ferret, and immediately afterwards by a robin.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR HARDING of 17 Hermitage-street, Cheltenham, who celebrated their golden wedding last week. Mr. Harding has been a worker and deacon at Leckhampton Baptist Church for 38 years and his wife a helper for that time. He retired two years ago, after 42 years with Messrs. A. C. Billings.

SNOW SCENES ON THE COTSWOLDS

Two photographs taken during the severe weather preceding Christmas on Cotswold roads. On the left a Tewkesbury lorry is seen being dug out of a drift on the Notgrove-Bourton road; on the right is a scene on the London-Cheltenham road, near Shipton, on Friday, when numbers of cars were held up by snowdrifts, many of them being snowed up all night.

FESTIVITIES AT NAZARETH HOUSE, CHELTENHAM

Some of the children at Nazareth House, where friends, and the faithful sisters who look after them so well, had provided Christmas trees for the seniors and juniors. Every child in the House had two presents each, and there were some more still to come.
