MEMBERS' INTERESTS AND DATA PROTECTION REGULATIONS

The Society maintains a database of members' interests and research for the benefit of its membership and for other researchers, which may be published from time to time in the Society's Newsletters or Journal. We would welcome information about your particular interest in the history of Cheltenham or in local history generally and would ask you to complete the form if you are willing to share this information. The information you provide on this form will be entered into the Society's database. This database is used to post newsletters and journals to you, and email is used to keep you up to date with any programme changes and news. We do not share this information with anyone else and do not use it for any other purpose.
